WEEKLY NEW ERA.

ONE DOLLAR A YEAR

HOPKINSVILLE, CHRISTIAN COUNTY KENTUCKY FRIDAY FEBRUARY 10 1905

VOLUME XXXV, NO. 18

BELT LINE CERTAIN WITH HEAVY SHOVEL

COMPANY WILL HAVE $100,000 CAPITAL.

MR. DALTON PRESIDENT

Articles of Incorporation Will Be Filed in a Few Days.

As foreshadowed by the New Era weeks ago this city is to have a belt line.

The Hopkinsville Belt Line Railway Company will file articles of incorporation in a few days.

The capital stock of the company will be $100,000, and its purpose will be to construct a line of railway connecting the Louisville & Nashville, the Illinois Central and the Tennessee Central railroads.

H. M. Dalton, of this city, will be president of the company and is now in the city attending to the preliminary arrangements of the organization.

Routes have been surveyed and it has been practically decided to build the line from a point on the Illinois Central, near the Tennessee Central "Y," and extend north of the city limits, following partly the course of Little river, to a point beyond the pumping station of the Hopkinsville Water company, where it will connect with the quarry tracks.

As heretofore stated at length in the New Era, the belt line will be built in order to handle freight of all kinds between the three railroads, and will prove of incalculable value to all large shippers.

Howell Happenings.

Mrs. L. A. Giles has sent out invitations to the marriage of her daughter, Miss Lillian Annabelle, to Mr. Howard Hancock, of Lebanon, Tenn., on Feb. 16, 1905. They will reside in Lebanon, Tenn.

Miss Edith Allen has taken a brave stand for the Lord. She left last week to enter the Baptist seminary to receive training to become a missionary.

After many weeks of close confinement, County Chairman W. W. Radford, of the Planters' Association, and family are able to be out enjoying the cool breezes.

Miss Tennie Clardy intends to leave soon for a visit to her brother in Mobile, Ala., for several weeks.

Mr. Geo. W. Embury and family are enjoying the close ties of relationship from relatives in Florida, who sent them a couple of boxes of nice oranges.

Several of Dr. Haynes' patients who have been suffering from pneumonia fever are now able to be up but are not permitted to go out of doors yet.

It is feared by our bird hunters that there will be a great scarcity of birds next season. They should be fed by those who enjoy the sport of hunting. —SMAGGS.

Will Observe February 22.

The postmaster general has granted rural letter carriers permission to observe Wednesday, Feb. 22, 1905, Washington's birthday, as a holiday, and no delivery of mail will be made to patrons on rural routes on that day, unless they should call at the offices from which the rural carriers start, at a certain hour, 10 to 11 o'clock on the morning of that day.

COLUMBUS PEPPER SLEW HIS BROTHER.

BOTH WERE DRINKING.

Inquest Held, and the Negro Is Arrested Charged With Murder.

(From Thursday's Daily.)
Corner James Allensworth lodged Columbus Pepper, col., in jail last night charged with killing his brother, Plush Pepper.

Evidence taken at the inquest showed that on the night of Jan. 31, at the home of S. W. Kaufman, on the Greenville road, the brothers, both of whom were drinking, had a fight. Plush was trying to take Columbus home by force and knocked him down. Columbus sprang to his feet, seizing a heavy shovel and dealt his brother a terrific blow on the head knocking him insensible.

The injured man was taken to his home in Gainesville in a wagon, and died there yesterday. Plush Pepper was 25 years old and had lately returned from the Philippines where he spent three years as a soldier. The prisoner is 30 years old. He expressed deep regret that he would be unable to attend his brother's funeral, but none over his death. The verdict of the coroner's jury recited the facts of the killing and concluded with the opinion that Columbus was not justified in killing Plush.

KILLED AT GUTHRIE

(Special to New Era)
GUTHRIE, Ky., Feb. 9.—W. H. Herndon, of Earlington, flagman on No. 67 freight, was injured while switching in the yards here at 3:40 this morning and died about 8:15.

Dies of Lockjaw.

Roy Crist, eighteen-year-old son of Albert Crist, a prominent farmer of Caldwell county, died Tuesday from lockjaw.

Notes About People

(From Thursday's Daily)
Mr. T. E. Macauley, of Atlanta, formerly manager of the Royal Dry Goods Co., of this city, was here today in the interest of the Niall Herin Co., for which house he is traveling.

Mrs. J. C. Thomas, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. A. J. Casey, of Hopkinsville, returned home Saturday.—Hartford Herald.

William Cate, of Hopkinsville, is the guest of Dr. and Mrs. L. A. King on Upper Main street this week.—Henderson Gleaner.

Mrs. L. M. Armstrong is in Nashville visiting relatives.

Miss Virgie Nourse is at home from Madisonville recovering from an attack of grip.

Messrs. Sam Frankel, A. P. Newman, Chas. Slaughter, R. H. DeTreville and Walter Trainum went to Nashville yesterday.

K. P. Hotel Men.

Charles D. Shively, supreme chancellor of the Knights of Pythias, has made public two opinions of general interest. He has decided that a member who is a bona fide hotel keeper may personally attend his own bar conducted in connection with such hotel business. The other decision is that there is nothing in the Pythian law to prevent a supreme representative from holding the office of grand lecturer.

MAJOR JOHN PHELPS HAS PASSED AWAY

SUITABLE ACTION TAKEN BY LOCAL BAR.

MR. THOMPSON'S BODY

Reached Hopkinsville Last night.—Death of Mrs. Johnson.

(From Thursday's Daily.)

Maj. John Phelps, one of the best known citizens of Hopkinsville and for many years a prominent attorney-at-law, died at four o'clock yesterday afternoon.

He was stricken with paralysis Saturday night and his condition was hopeless from the first. The deceased had a legion of friends in this community and his death causes widespread regret. He was a son of the late Judge Hiram A. Phelps, a distinguished lawyer, and was a member of the firm of H. A. Phelps & Son, which was one of the most successful in this region. Maj. Phelps was born in Hopkinsville Feb. 9, 1845. He was educated in the local schools and in 1869 was admitted to the bar. Since that date he had been in constant practice in this city, and in the early part of his career served as city attorney. His exceptional qualifications as an interpreter of law caused him frequently to be appointed as special judge. He was married on Nov. 13, 1868, to Miss Emma McReynolds, who died in 1871. One son, Hugh B. Phelps, survives him. Funeral services will be held this afternoon at the residence of his son on East Ninth street, conducted by Rev. Dr. Charles H. Nash, of the Baptist church, and the interment will be in Hopewell cemetery. The following gentlemen will act as pall bearers: Gus Gandy, H. W. Tibbs, J. T. Hanbery, Joe McCarroll, C. H. Bush, S. G. Buckner, W. P. Winfree and J. W. Downer.

Out of respect to the memory of Maj. John Phelps, the members of the Hopkinsville bar assembled at ten o'clock this morning in the county court room. On motion, Judge J. I. Landes was chosen chairman, and Roger W. Harrison secretary. Hunter Wood, Sr., spoke feelingly of his high regard for the deceased, of Maj. Phelps' attainments and courtesy, and the personal loss that each member of the bar sustained by his death. On motion, the chairman appointed Judge W. T. Fowler, Judge C. H. Bush, Mr. Wood, John Feland and Ford L. Wilkinson to draw up resolutions of respect. The following resolutions were reported and unanimously adopted:

"Whereas, John Phelps, one of the oldest practitioners at the Hopkinsville bar, has been suddenly stricken and removed from his sphere in life; and, whereas, his untimely taking has caused to be stricken from our roll a man that has for forty years added luster to our profession in this end of the state:

"Resolved, by the members of said bar, that we mourn his sudden departure from us, and that we shall cherish the memory of his gentlemanly bearing, his uniform courtesy, and his willingness to give a helping hand to the younger brothers in the profession.

"Resolve, further, that we tender to the members of his family our sympathy in this their hour of sadness.

"Resolved, further, that as a mark of respect we attend his funeral, and that a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the Christian circuit court, a copy furnished the members of his family, and a copy furnished the press for publication.

Hunter Wood, Chairman.
C. H. Bush.
F. L. Wilkinson.
W. T. Fowler.
John Feland.

On motion, Judge Bush and Judge McCarroll were appointed to select a floral design as a token of respect for the deceased brother.

CHARLES A. THOMPSON.
A telegram from Hot Springs announces that the remains of the late Charles A. Thompson were shipped from there at 7:45 o'clock last night by the Wells-Fargo express and would arrive in this city tonight. Mrs. Frank H. Bassett, the daughter of the deceased, is on her way home from Florida and will reach Hopkinsville tomorrow morning. Mr. Bassett is expected home tonight.

MRS. GEORGIA ANN JOHNSON.
Mrs. Georgia Ann Johnson died last night at 12:10 o'clock at the home of her son-in-law, T. J. McReynolds, five miles south of the city. She had been an invalid several years, but the immediate cause of her death was pneumonia. Mrs. Johnson was about seventy years of age and a native of Todd county. Her husband was the late J. H. Johnson, a prominent Todd county citizen. Before her marriage she was Miss Georgia Ann Wimsa.

Mrs. Johnson was a consecrated Christian and a life-long member of the Baptist church at Allenaville. Her long life had been crowded with good deeds and acts of sympathy and kindness, and her death causes sorrow among all who knew her. Two children, Mrs. T. J. McReynolds, of this county, and V. R. Johnson, of Elkton, survive her. The remains will be taken to Elkton this afternoon and the funeral will be held there tomorrow morning at ten o'clock at her son's residence.

DR. C. W. GREENFIELD.
Dr. Cyrus W. Greenfield, of Guthrie, died Tuesday night in Greenville, Miss., at the home of his son-in-law, Charles Clark, where he had been spending the winter.

Dr. Greenfield was about eighty years of age and had been very infirm for several years, suffering from paralysis. He was reared and had lived all his long life in the neighborhood of Sadlersville and Guthrie.

MRS. SADIE WALLACE.
Mrs. Sadie Wallace died last Thursday at the home of her uncle, Robert Boyd, near Beverly. Consumption caused death. The interment took place in the Pool burying ground near Bainbridge. An infant daughter survives. Mrs. Wallace was only nineteen years of age, and was a Christian woman of many beautiful traits of character.

Henry J. Phelps, a highly respected and intelligent colored man, died yesterday afternoon at his home in this city after a long sickness from a complication of maladies. He was a hack-owner and was also local editor of the Morning News, a negro paper published daily in this city.

HEAD SOLID SORE

Awful Suffering of Baby and Sleepless Nights of Mother.

CURED BY CUTICURA

Skin Fair as a Lily with no Scar to Recall Awful Sore Writes Mother.

"I herewith write out in full the beginning and end of that terrible disease eczema," says Mrs. Wm. Ryer, Elk River, Minn., "which caused my babe untold suffering and myself many sleepless nights. My babe was born seemingly a fair, healthy child, but when she was three weeks old a swelling appeared on the back of her head, and in course of time broke. It did not heal but grew worse, and the sore spread from the size of a dime to that of a dollar. I used all kinds of remedies that I could think of, but nothing seemed to help; in fact, it grew worse. Her hair fell out where the sore was, and I feared it would never grow again. It continued until my aged father came on a visit, and when he saw the baby he told me to get Cuticura Soap and Ointment right away.

"To please him I did so, and to my surprise by their use the sore began to heal over, the hair grew over it, and to-day she has a nice head of hair, her skin is as fair as a lily, and she has no scar left to recall that awful sore, and it is over eight months and no sign of its returning."

CURE PERMANENT

"Your letter of the 19th inst. received, asking in regard to the cure of my baby some six years ago. Well, the disease has never returned to her head which at that time was a solid sore on top and down the back."

Mrs. Wm. Ryer, Elk River, Minn., Feb. 25, 1903.

Sold throughout the world. Cuticura Soap, 25c. per box. Cuticura Ointment, 10c. per tin. Sold by all druggists and dealers in household goods.

FAMILY IN NIGHTCLOTHES FOUGHT FIRE WITH SNOW

John Edwards Used Coal Oil to Start Fire and Stove Was Blown Up.—He Was Probably Fatally Burned And Others Were Injured.

(From Friday's Daily.)

Early yesterday morning, John Edwards, a colored man who lives with his wife and six children in a small dwelling near Cates' mill, used kerosene to light a fire in a stove. There was an explosion and flying pieces of iron, coal and burning kindling were scattered about the room. The bedding on which the family were lying caught on fire. Edmunds pulled a burning mattress from the room and in doing so his clothes caught fire and in a moment was wrapped in flames. He rolled over in the snow and finally succeeded in extinguishing the flames but not until he had been frightfully burned on his body and legs. His wife and children, who were trying to put out the fire in the house, were all burned to some extent. The woman's injuries are extremely painful, her face, neck and shoulders being badly blistered. None of the family had time to put on their clothes and the clothing of the children, all of whom are under twelve years of age, was almost entirely destroyed by the fire. There was no water at the house and the occupants, almost naked, fought the flames in the bitter cold with snow and succeeded in saving the house from burning. Dr. Thomas was summoned by white people in the neighborhood to attend to the victims of the fire. Edwards' injuries are of a most serious nature and he may not recover. The others are doing well. The family is rendered destitute by the loss and the injury to Edwards.

Itch-Ringworm.

E. T. Lucas, Wingo, Ky., writes April 25th, 1902: "For 10 to 12 years I had been afflicted with a malady known as the 'itch.' The itching was most unbearable; I had tried for years to find relief, having tried all remedies I could hear of, besides a number of doctors. I wish to state that one single application of Ballard's Snow Lintment cured me completely and permanently. Since then I have used the lintment on two separate occasions for ring worm and it cured completely. 25c, 50 and $1.00 bottle. Sold by Ray & Fowler and L. L. Elgin.

T. C. at Clarksville.

General Manager George A. Clark announced Wednesday that the Tennessee Central Railroad Company had completed plans for a number of important improvements at Clarksville, says the Nashville American.

The most important project on foot is the remodeling of the old tobacco exchange building and converting it into a modern depot. This is one of the largest buildings in Clarksville, as well as one of the finest. The company bought the property when the road reached Clarksville last fall and will now make it a passenger station.

LAND OF FLOWERS AND SUNSHINE.

California Woman's Letter of Special Interest to people in Hopkinsville.

At this season of the year a letter from the land of flowers and sunshine is of special interest to our readers. The following letter from the Holden Drug Co., of Stockton, Cal., one of the largest drug houses on the Pacific coast, is of especial interest. They write: "Enclosed is a letter from one of the most prominent residents of this city. She will not allow her name to be published in the newspapers, but we can furnish it anyone writing us."

The letter is as follows: "For some four years my daughter has had headaches, which seriously interfered with her school work. Until recently we attributed the trouble to eye strain, but happening to notice your advertisement of Hyomei, we were satisfied that her trouble came from catarrh.

We purchased a dollar outfit, and within twenty-four hours great relief was experienced, and the loosening of mucous matter and the reduction of throat inflammation began. Sixty days use of Hyomei made nearly a complete recovery, which we consider very satisfactory after nearly four years of expense and fruitless treatment by other methods, and that we feel grateful to put it in print."

Mrs. This letter shows that many cases of sickness and debility are simply caused by catarrh and that they can be cured by Hyomei. This is nature's own method of curing catarrh, medicating the air you breathe.

A complete outfit, including the inhaler, costs but $1, and extra bottles are only 50 cents. Ask L. L. Elgin to show you the strong guarantee under which he sells this remarkable remedy.

Johnson-Duncan.

(From Friday's Daily)

Mr. William Duncan and Miss Kitty Johnson were joined in matrimony last night at the home of the bride in Louisville. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Hawes, and immediately after the service the happy couple left on an extensive trip to California and Mexico. The bride has many friends and admirers in this city where she formerly resided. She was a niece of the late Dr. B. W. Stone. The fortunate bridegroom is a prosperous business man of Greenville, Ky.

Croup

Begins with the symptoms of a common cold; there is chilliness, sneezing, sore throat, hot skin, quick pulse, hoarseness and impeded respiration. Give frequent small doses of Ballard's Horehound Syrup, (the child will cry for it) and at the first sign of a croupy cough, apply frequently Ballard's Snow Lintment to the throat.

Mrs. A. Vliet, New Castle, Colo., writes, March 19th, 1901: "I think Ballard's Horehound Syrup a wonderful remedy and so pleasant." 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by Ray & Fowler and L. L. Elgin.

"Aunt Caroline" Clardy Dead.

"Aunt Caroline" Clardy, one of the best known and most respected colored women in the city, died last night, at her home of heart affection. She was seventy-two years of age. Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the Virginia street colored Baptist church. "Aunt Caroline" had attended the advent of more infants and nursed more children than any other nurse in the city and her gentleness, fidelity and efficiency were unfailing.

ENCOURAGING NEWS

RECEIVED FROM CHAIRMAN EWING.

Believes Tobacco Bill Will Pass at this Session of Congress.

Chairman Felix Ewing, of the Dark Tobacco Growers' Protective association, has written an encouraging letter from Washington, to which place he went several days ago. He stated that Senator Aldrich, chairman of the finance committee, who held up the bill repealing the six-cent tax on tobacco at the last session of congress, is in Europe, and that Senator Allison, of Iowa, had charge of the bill. The latter is a warm friend of Secretary of Agriculture Wilson, who is heartily in favor of the bill. After a very satisfactory conference with Mr. Wilson, Mr. Ewing in company with the former, called on the president, to whom the matter was thoroughly explained. They were given a careful hearing, and Mr. Ewing felt encouraged after the conference. He believes that the bill will pass at the present session of congress. Before returning home Mr. Ewing will go to New York to meet representatives of a syndicate with whom he is negotiating for the sale of all of the tobacco controlled by the association.

READ THIS.

Hopkinsville, Ky., June 7, 1901. Dr. E. W. Hall, St. Louis, Mo.—Dear Sir: I have sold your Texas Wonder, Hall's Great Discovery, for the past three years and from experience I can say I have never sold any kidney and bladder remedy of superior merits.

Most respectfully, THOMAS D. ARMISTEAD.

A TEXAS WONDER.

One small bottle of the Texas Wonder, Hall's Great Discovery, cures all kidney and bladder troubles, removes gravel, cures diabetes, seminal emissions, weak and lame backs, rheumatism and all irregularities of the kidneys and bladder in both men and women; regulates bladder troubles in children. If not sold by your druggist, it will be sent by mail on receipt of $1. One small bottle is two months' treatment and seldom fails to perfect a cure. Dr. E. W. Hall, sole manufacturer, P. O. Box 630, St. Louis, Mo. Send for testimonials. Sold by druggists and Thomas D. Armistead.

Over-Work Wakens You Kidneys.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys once every three minutes. The kidneys are your blood purifiers. They filter out the waste or impurities in the blood. If they are sick or out of order, they fail to do their work. Pains, aches and rheumatism come from excess of uric acid in the blood, due to neglected kidneys.

Kidney trouble causes quick or unsteady heart beats, and makes one feel as though they had heart trouble, because the heart is over-working in pumping thick, kidney-poisoned blood through veins and arteries. It used to be considered that only urinary troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in kidney trouble.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail. Home of Swamp-Root, free, also pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

FIVE MURDERERS

ARE IN THE LOUISVILLE JAIL.

Each of Them Has Been Sentenced to Die on the Scaffold.

There are five murderers in the jail at Louisville awaiting execution now, but the majority of cases an appeal is pending, and it is believed that the new jail will be occupied before any of the sentences are carried out.

William Van Dalsen is sentenced to hang on the 24th of the present month but it is probable that an appeal will be taken in the meantime, which will operate as a stay of execution.

George Warner, who killed Pulaski Ljeda, and whose death sentence was affirmed recently by the court of appeals, was originally sentenced to die on April 29, 1904. The new date will be fixed by Governor Beckham.

Jake Bischoff is under sentence to hang on March 10, but it is understood that his case will be taken to the higher court. James Thomas, colored, who was sentenced to hang on April 22, 1904, has an appeal pending and Ed Brown, also colored, is under sentence of death, but no date has been fixed.

John R. Pfanz, the jailer, thinks that the new jail will be ready for occupancy by April 1, and does not believe that any of the convicted men now under sentence of death will hang in the old jail.

SELECTING FAIR DATES

Kentucky and Illinois Towns Are Choosing The Dates.

Five out of eight towns in the Tri-State racing circuit have chosen their fair dates. The remaining three towns are expected to announce their dates within a few weeks.

The Tri-State circuit was organized in order to facilitate the promotion of county fairs in this section. Towns in Indiana, Kentucky and Illinois where the fairs are big events are members of the circuit.

Jacob Zimbro, Jr., of this city, is secretary and treasurer of the association.

The towns and the dates they have chosen are as follows:

Mt. Vernon, Ind., August 14 to 19. Uniontown, August 8 to 12.

Henderson, September 26 to October 1.

Carmi, Ill., September 5 to 9.

Boonville, Ind., August 28 to September 2.

The remaining towns are Madisonville, Ky., Christeney, Ind., and Princeton, Ind.—Henderson Gleaser.

NINE EXAMINATIONS

Will be Held in Kentucky Next Spring.

In the manual of examinations issued by the United States civil service commission it is announced that nine examinations will be held during the coming spring.

The dates for the examinations and the places where they will be held are as follows:

Lexington, March 15, 22, and April 19; Louisville, March 15, 23, 24 and April 19; Paducah, March 15 and April 19.

The government needs in its service pressmen, stenographers, engineers, acting assistant surgeons, law clerks, kindergarten teachers, immigrant inspectors, trained nurses, translators, farmers, fish culturists, draftsmen, pharmacists, civil and electrical engineers, and persons proficient in almost any line.

According to a table compiled by the civil service commission, Kentucky has not as many persons under the civil service as she is entitled to have. The state is entitled to 215, and at the present she has but 200 in the service.

FIRE OF INCENDIARY ORIGIN WRECKS STORE IN THE PHOENIX.

W. H. BICKERS, SHOEMAN, THE VICTIM.

THEORY OF A ROBBERY

Is Advanced After Inspection of Building.—Caught in Cellar.

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

Fire supposed to be of incendiary origin late last night destroyed the shoe store of W. H. Bickers in the Phoenix building on East Ninth street.

Shortly after eleven o'clock as L. A. Johnson left his store on Ninth and Virginia streets he noticed a blaze down Ninth street which he at first thought to be rubbish burning in the street but upon closer inspection saw that the blaze was rising through the grating on the cellar of one of the stores in the Phoenix block. He at once turned in an alarm and was one of the first to reach the scene.

The blaze was largely confined to the cellar but enough of it reached the store above through the stairway and a hole which was burned in the floor to badly scorch all the boxes of shoes and this together with the damage from smoke and water will make the entire stock almost a complete loss. The stock is estimated to be worth $3,000 on which there is $1,600 insurance with Mrs. J. M. Campbell divided between the Mercantile and Northern companies and $800 on the stock and $300 on the fixtures with Winfree & Winfree in the Anchor company. The losses on the building which will probably reach $1000 is covered by insurance with Higgins & Son.

Probably the first persons to reach the scene were two trainmen of the Tennessee Central railroad, who had been looking at some upstairs rooms before the fire broke out. These men say that when they tried the door it was unlocked and when Lieut. Booth Morris of the police force came up his attention was called to it. Fire Chief George Randle says that in his opinion the fire was undoubtedly of incendiary origin. He says the door leading up from the cellar was left standing wide open and the door leading from the building into the rear alley had been propped open with a bucket apparently to make the fire gain as much headway as possible before being discovered.

The theory is advanced that the fire was started by thieves who entered the store for the purpose of stealing some of the shoes and who set building on fire in an effort to hide their crime. Some shoes were found out in the rear where they had been dropped near the fence but the tracks were lost here and the trail could not be found again. On account of the torn up condition of the stock it is of course impossible to determine just how many pairs of shoes were taken from the store.

Mr. and Mrs. Bickers were notified at their boarding house on Liberty street and reached the scene after the blaze had been gotten under control. Bert Matthews roomed just above the store and the railroad men, knowing his location, went up and aroused him from his slumbers. He was almost over come by the smoke and fumes from the fire. The bicycle store of West & Son next door to the shoe store was also considerably damaged by smoke and water but fortunately the door leading from the cellar into this room was closed and the blaze did not get through.

Had the blaze been given a few minutes more time it is very probable that a conflagration would have resulted as the alarm was turned in and the department reached the scene barely in time to confine the blaze to the shoe store. The police are working diligently in the effort to locate the supposed thief and fire-bug.

SHOT BY ASSASSIN.

PROCURATOR GENERAL OF FINLAND MURDERED

Slayer Wounded in Duel With Son of His Victim.

(Cablegram.)

HELSINGFORS, Feb. 7.—Soisalon Soisinen, Procurator General of Finland, who before he was ennobled was known by the name of Johnson, was assassinated Monday by an unknown man, whose identity up to the present time has not been determined. The assassin and Soisinen's son were both wounded in a revolver duel following the killing.

The murderer appeared at the Procurator's residence at 11 o'clock and sent in a card bearing in French the name of Alexandre Gadd, who is in the Russian service. The young man, smartly dressed in an officer's uniform, was promptly admitted to the official's private study, and on his entrance fired four shots from a revolver, one of the bullets piercing the breast of the Procurator, who expired almost immediately.

His 17-year-old son, hearing the shots, rushed in from an adjoining room and fired three or four shots at his father's assassin, whose right leg was broken below the knee by a bullet. The assassin fired the one bullet remaining in his revolver at Soisinen's son, wounding him slightly in the calf of his right leg. He then endeavored to escape, but fell unconscious to the floor in the ante-room. The assassin was removed to the surgical hospital, where he lies, answering no questions, and evidently unconscious. His recovery, however, is thought to be certain.

Up to the present time the authorities have been unable to identify him.

Soisinen was born in 1856 and practiced at the Finnish bar. He was highly esteemed and had held various government appointments. He was regarded as a wise and patriotic official. It is understood that it was at his initiative that the Finns elected by Gov. Gen. Bobrikoff were allowed to return to Finland.

Notes About People

From Tuesday's Daily.

Miss Elizabeth Harrison, of Springfield, O., will arrive in the city today to visit Miss Jean Goldthwaite.

Mrs. J. M. Armstrong left yesterday afternoon for Nashville to spend several days visiting relatives.

Bassett Elgin, son of Walter Elgin, of Nortonville, has entered school here.

Mrs. A. M. Causey and little son, Louis Kenneth, left this morning for Hopkinsville where they will spend a week visiting friends and relatives.—Bowling Green News.

Mrs. Green Henry Russell has returned from a visit to friends in Louisville.

Mrs. T. L. Gant has returned to Pensacola, Fla.

Dr. W. W. Williams, of Church Hill, is in the city.

Mr. Harry Lipstine is at home after a three months' Southern trip.

Mrs. Chas. P. Johnson has accepted a position as book keeper for Tandy & Fairleigh.

Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Baker, of Princeton, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Metcalfe.

American Catholics.

The official directory of the Catholic church for 1906 gives the Catholic population under the American flag as 20,563,492. Of these, 12,467,793 are in America and 7,095,699 in the Philippines.

Winn Elected.

Matt J. Winn, of the Louisville Jockey Club, was elected President of the new American Turf Association, organized in opposition to the Western Jockey Club.

HOSPITALS CLOSED.

NOMORE PATIENTS TO BE TREATED.

Last Case Will Be Dismissed As Soon As Weather Permits.

The smallpox scare is a thing of the past. The hospital for white persons in Cedar Grove was finally closed several days ago.

The eruptive hospital for colored people is now ready to be closed as the last patient has been definitively cured, but on account of the severe weather it was thought best to keep this patient, a negro girl, in the hospital for a few days longer so that there would be no danger of her bringing on a complication by exposure. Just as soon as the weather will permit the girl will be sent home and then the hospital will be thoroughly ventilated, everything packed away ready for future use should it become necessary, and the doors locked.

BISHOP WOODCOCK

The satisfaction with which the members of the Episcopal church greeted the election of the Rev. Charles E. Woodcock as Bishop of Kentucky was confirmed Sunday when Bishop Woodcock made his first public appearance among his church people, officiating at three services, in Louisville, the morning and afternoon services at Christ Church Cathedral and the evening services at St. Andrew's church. By his appearance, his bearing and preaching he instantly won a place in the hearts of the church members and on every hand as the congregations left the churches the members could be seen congratulating each other and commenting that "he is the right man in the right place."

Broke His Arm.

John Morris, the dairyman, met with an extremely painful accident Sunday. He slipped on the ice on Clay street and broke his right arm at the elbow. A part of the same arm had been cut off in a corn shredder several years ago. Dr. Sargent attended Mr. Morris and set the fractured bone.

Little Drops of Water.

Little drops of water, Freezing as they fall, Make man's feet fly upward, Dislocate his gail.

Rob the merry fat man Of his store of mirth, Make him leave his trade mark Where he hits the earth.

Make the pretty little Lady cease to care Who may chance to hear her, Who may turn to stare.

Little drops of water Freezing where they splash, Make the mean old miser Cease to think of cash.

Rob the happy lover Of his thoughts of love As new constellations He beholds above.

Make the mighty magnate Sitting on his hat, Have disgust for water And such things as that.

Little drops of water Freezing where they fall, Show that Hades has some Good points after all.

Fraud Exposed.

A few counterfeiters have lately been making and trying to sell imitations of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, and other medicines, thereby defrauding the public. This is to warn you to beware of such people, who seek to profit through stealing the reputation of remedies which have been successfully curing disease for over 35 years. A sure protection to you is our name on the wrapper. Look for it on all Dr. King's and Bucklen's remedies as all others are mere imitations. E. E. BUCKLEN & CO., Chicago, Ill., and Windsor Canada.

CITY COUNCIL MET

BUSINESS OF INTEREST TRANSACTED

More Street Lights—Water Works Franchise.—New City Tax Assessor.

(From Saturday's Daily)
The city council met last night in regular session with Mayor Henry and all members of the board present with the exception of Councilman Galbreath, who is sick. The reports of city officers were received and approved. The meat market men of the city requested through their representative, Attorney John Feland that the council appoint a committee of three to confer with them in regard to fixing license on the meat business, which was done. Several directors of the Y. M. C. A. appeared before the council with the request that ordinance be passed allowing the association to use 18 inches of pavement on Ninth street in front of their property for the placing of stone steps and two columns. An ordinance was passed allowing same.

An order was made directing the clerk to offer for sale a water works franchise. The water and light committee made a report and the council ordered lights placed at corner of 17th and Main; South Main near city limits; Twyman St., near 19th; East 7th St., between Campbell and Belmont at Gooch alley; Brown street north of 7th St.; corner of 18th and Clay Sts., and one on West 18th or West 19th at option of the committee. The contract with R. F. Vaughn for crushed stone to be furnished the city for the year 1906 was ratified. F. R. Dryer, the city assessor, tendered his resignation, which was accepted, and R. L. Boulware was elected to fill the unexpired term.

TOBACCO MARKET.

BAD WEATHER INTERFERES WITH DELIVERIES

Reports received from the board of inspectors and warehousemen show the tobacco market to be unusually quiet for the opening of the new year. This is largely due to the intensely cold weather that the country has been experiencing, as the roads are all blocked up so that tobacco can not be brought any great distance to market unless upon the railroads. Neither has there been any seasonable weather for prizing the weed and getting it in shape to be delivered. The only sales that are being effected are the ones made privately, but the prices on such as do sell are satisfactory.

The sales of the weed in its loose condition upon the warehouse floors are being held weekly, and considerable tobacco in this way changes hands. Prices are better than they were at any time last season, and the farmers are sanguine that they will remain good.

Lost $600 Pin.

The Jacksonville, Fla., Times-Union says:

"George E. Gary, secretary of the Forbes Manufacturing company, makers of the Mogul wagons at Hopkinsville, Ky., was the victim of a snatch thief at the union station yesterday morning.

"Mr. Gary was mingling with the crowd, which was very thick at the time of the robbery. He stated yesterday that he noticed a man keeping rather close to him, and when he left his side his valuable diamond stickpin, valued by him at $600, was missing from his cravat.

"Crooks are numerous about the union station at present, and within the past two days numerous pickpockets have been reported to the police."

LOUISVILLE'S LEPER

RUSSIAN JEW WHO HAS JUST ARRIVED.

Has a Well Developed Case of This Most Terrible Disease.

(Special to New Era)

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Feb. 4.—In Louisville's most densely populated district, near the intersection of First and Market streets, there is a leper. A Russian Jew arrived in this city recently, who has brought with him the most dreaded scourge of the orient—Asiatic leprosy.

When it was learned today that a case of leprosy had been found down town the physician who had the case in charge was seen and, though admitting that microscopic examination had revealed beyond question the presence of the leprosy germ, he refused to give the name of the leper.

The physician who diagnosed the case as leprosy is Dr. G. O. Hall, a pathological specialist and a member of the faculty of the Hospital College of Medicine. For some time the patient had been suffering from a tumor and a diseased condition of the skin. It was thought that the unhealthy condition of the skin was due to the tumor, but as the cuticle took on an ashy and morbid appearance it was feared that the disease was of a serious nature. Pieces of loose flesh were taken from the surface of the Russian's body, who, being unable to speak a word of English, was at a loss to understand the purpose or the result of the examination, and when a minute particle of the cuticle was placed under the microscope the presence of thousands of the well known leprosy germs was discovered. Pieces of the infected flesh were taken to the clinic and exhibited to the students as products of the disease that has for thousands of years been viewed with the very greatest horror and awe.

The victim is kept in his room and carefully guarded day and night to prevent any stranger by chance approaching him. Dr. M. K. Allen, the city health officer, has not been informed of the case and every effort is being made to keep it quiet.

Sues For $200 Damages.

John Feland as attorney for E. L. Bradshaw, has filed suit in the quarterly court against C. C. Bickerts for $200 damages. In the petition it is alleged that last November the defendant assaulted and abused the plaintiff, injuring him to the amount prayed for.

With Forbes' Company.

Wharton Crabb has resigned his position with the L. & N. railroad and accepted one with the Forbes' Manufacturing company. He will collect for the company and do office work.

A Bankrupt.

A. C. Harris, a farmer of near Canton, Trigg county, has filed a petition in bankruptcy. His liabilities are $12,500, and his assets about $2,000.

LEANDER R. DAVIS

PASSES AWAY AFTER A LONG ILLNESS.

Venerable Citizen Died Suddenly At His Home Near This City.

(From Monday's Daily.)

Leander R. Davis, an aged and highly respected citizen, father of Councilman Lucian H. Davis, died Sunday morning at his farm near this city.

The deceased had been an invalid for three years and had suffered greatly from an asthmatic affection. He recently contracted a severe cold and the immediate cause of his death was a smothering spell which prevented his breathing.

Mr. Davis was born May 12, 1834, and was a native of Christian county. For a number of years he was in the grocery business, but sold out and moved to the Campbell farm on the Russellville pike where he had since made his home.

He is survived by his widow and the following children: Mrs. W. M. Johnson, L. H. Davis, Ross W. Davis, of Bloomington, Ill., Mrs. E. R. Vaughn, of Lubbock, Texas, and John Campbell Davis. He was a conscientious Christian and a member of the Baptist church, having united with the church thirty-five years ago. He was a member of Evergreen Lodge No. 38, Knights of Pythias. Mr. Davis was an honorable, upright citizen, devoted to his family and faithful to all the duties of life.

Funeral services were held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Baptist church, and the pastor, Rev. Dr. Chas. H. Nash, assisted by Rev. Dr. E. L. Southgate and Rev. W. F. Cashman. The remains were interred with Pythian honors at Hope-well cemetery.

Dangerously Wounded.

George Clark, a traveling man residing in Evansville, Ind., who is well known in Hopkinsville, was shot in the head Friday on an L. & N. train near Enfield, Ill., and will in all probability die from the wound. The ball was fired by a boy in a field adjoining the railroad track. It crashed through a window of the train and penetrated Mr. Clark's head, lodging in the bones behind the nose. Mr. Clark is a man about forty-five years old and moved to Evansville from Owensboro, Ky., about six months ago. He had started out on a trip to Carmi, Illinois. The boy, of course, escaped before the train could be stopped.

Roney's Boys.

Manager McPherson is arranging to give the tabernacle patrons one of the most delightful musical treats in years. Roney's Boys Concert company which will appear here in the near future. This is one of the highest class entertainments in America. Braddock (Pa.) News "Roney's Boys" are "the best ever." Such is the verdict, unanimously given, of the large audience in attendance. The boys sang with the ease and pureness of tone of professionals of many years constant practice.

Biddeford (Me.) Record: By far the best entertainment that has ever been given in the library course.

Barre (Vt.) Telegram: Unquestionably the most interesting entertainment of its kind ever heard here.

NATURAL CURIOSITIES AND HISTORIC RUINS IN KENTUCKY.

Pilot Rock and the North Christian Natural Bridge Are Among the States' Most Interesting Freaks of Nature.--Wonders of All Kinds.

For natural curiosities and historic ruins Kentucky ranks higher than any other state in the country. Besides Mammoth Cave, which is one of the greatest natural wonders of the world, we may find other places in the state almost as interesting.

In Greenup county there is one of the largest and most beautiful fortifications to be found in the country. This place embraces about ten acres of ground and has four entrances, north, west, south and east. There are two wings, one at the north and one at the south entrance. The wing at the north entrance extends three-quarters of a mile to the Ohio river. The wing on the south extends one-half a mile to a tributary of the Ohio.

The walls of the fortification are constructed of earth, ten feet high, thirty feet broad at the bottom and twelve feet broad at the top, while the entrances are twelve feet wide. The ground within is level and covered with fine trees of the largest class. The walls are also covered with trees which gives it the appearance of the "Enchanted Castle."

When this fort was constructed and by whom, will, perhaps always remain a mystery, for it was made, no doubt, a hundred years before any white man ever trod on Kentucky soil.

In Hancock county about three-fourths of a mile from the Ohio river and about four miles from Hawesville, is a natural fortification. This is a circular table of land, surrounded on all sides by a cliff from fifty to one hundred feet high, which is impossible of ascent except in one place.

Near this fort is a burial place, or mound, while the ground, some years ago, was covered with bones of human beings. About one hundred yards from this place a spring issues from a large rock, which discharges a bituminous matter which smells like common tar.

In the west end of Allen county are the remains of an ancient fort which belonged to a people unknown and presents one of the strongest military positions in the world. Drake's creek makes a horseshoe bend here, for the distance of over a mile, and returns within thirty feet of where it begins. The partition which divides the channel of the creek, at this point, is of solid limestone and about thirty feet thick at the base. It is about two hundred yards in length, forty feet high and six feet wide at the top, which is level and covered with small cedar trees.

The area of the bend embraces about two hundred acres of land. The surface is level and contains the ancient fort, which forms a square of about three acres. This is surrounded by a wall and a ditch.

All access to the bend from the opposite bank is intercepted by tall cliffs, and the fort can only be reached by taking the narrow causeway.

About twelve miles west of Burlington is a peculiar chasm, in a hill which forms a zigzag avenue through it. The north side of the chasm is a perpendicular wall of rock, composed of pebbles, and is about eighty feet high.

Big Bone Lick is in this county, and near this place. The lick is in a valley, which comprises about one hundred acres. The valley is surrounded by irregular hills, the highest being on the west and reaching an altitude of about five hundred feet.

In the year 1778 James Douglas, of Virginia, visited this place and found, upon the surface of the ground, bones of a mastodon. The last of the bones were removed about one hundred years ago. The bones of some of the animals were extremely large, the teeth weighing 10 pounds, while some of the tusks were eleven feet long and seven inches in diameter. The ribs were equally as long and about four inches broad. Mr. Douglas used the ribs for tent poles.

About four miles from Carrollton, on the Muddy Fork of White Run, there was the form of a human being sitting on a limestone rock in the middle of the stream. Near by was the form of another, about six feet in length, lying on his back. Thirty years ago these petrified remains were well preserved.

In Christian county a few miles from Hopkinsville is the Pilot Rock. The summit is level and covers about half an acre of ground, on which small trees and shrubbery grow. Its most elevated summit can be easily reached, and a fine view of the surrounding country is presented.

About twenty miles from Hopkinsville is a natural bridge, not so large as Natural Bridge of Virginia, but just as interesting. It is thirty feet high and crosses a deep ravine. It has a magnificent arch and a span of sixty feet and a width of about five feet, while the surface is level.

On the top of Poplar mountain, in Clinton county, and about four miles from Albany, are several chalybeate springs. On a clear morning the stream may be traced with the eye from the top of the mountain for many miles. A splendid view of the country is gained from the top of this mountain.

Rock House in Cumberland county is another natural curiosity. It is a very lofty arch of solid rock and about forty feet high and sixty in width, with a tall cliff overhanging it.

In high stages of water a portion of the Cumberland river rushes through the opening with great force and rushes through a channel worn into the rock. It pours into the river again about half a mile below. In ordinary stages of water Rock House is perfectly dry.

In Edmundson county, on Dismal creek, is a perpendicular rock one hundred and sixty-three feet high, called Dismal Rock.

Just below Greensburg the cliffs of Green river are very high. In the valley three fine springs break out within a few yards of each other.

Their waters unite and flow about sixty feet to a projecting cliff, over which it flows, sending out a spray like a shower of rain. This place is called the Drip, and was a great bathing resort many years ago.

Near Munfordville in the level barrens is a hole in the earth of a funnel shape. It is about seventy feet in diameter at the top, but gradually decreases to about twelve feet, and is supposed to be bottomless. Visitors have thrown hundreds of cartloads of rock into it, but the bottom seems not to have been reached. Many attempts have been made to find the bottom with the aid of ropes, but to no avail.

Among some of the remarkable places in Owen county, is a perpendicular precipice, on the Kentucky river, called the Jump Off. This place is over one hundred feet high with a hollow through its center large enough for a wagon road.

In Rockcastle county, near Mt. Vernon, is Big Cave. This extends through a spur of the mountain and is about six hundred yards in length. The arch is from ten to twenty feet high. On either side of the pass are lofty rooms, some of them covering an acre. There is also a stream of water flowing through the cave, but it does not interfere with the pass, which is perfectly level and straight. In olden times oxen were taught to go from one side to the other in perfect darkness and without a driver.

In Whitley county, about fourteen miles from Williamsburg are the Cumberland falls. The river is precipitated over a perpendicular fall of about seventy feet, and the roar of the falling water may be heard for many miles. There is an arched cave behind the sheet of water, thus making a pass. A person may walk almost across the river behind this sheet of roaring water. The scenery around the place is grand and romantic.

It would take volumes to tell of the beautiful scenery and the wonderful curiosities of our proud and grand old state. —G. R. W. In the Louisville Times.

NOT IN UNIFORM.

(Special to New Era.)

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Feb. 3.—The court of inquiry yesterday recalled the officers of the First Kentucky regiment who appeared before it on Wednesday night, the purpose being to inquire how the proceedings of the court became public. The officers failed to appear in their uniforms, and all those summoned who possessed them were sent home to put them on. It is expected that court martial will be recommended for several of the local militia captains.

Republican Disgrace.

The Republican convention which met in Hopkinsville last Saturday to nominate county candidates to be voted for at the next November election disgraced itself by refusing to nominate Miss Katie McDaniel as county superintendent of schools. Miss McDaniel has the misfortune to be a woman and without a vote and also as an officer she has looked more to the duties of that office than she has to politics. Miss McDaniel has made one of the best superintendents in the state.—Madisonville Graphic.

NATURE TELLS YOU.

As Many a Hopkinsville Reader Knows Too Well.

When the kidneys are sick, Nature tells you all about it. The urine is nature's calendar. Infrequent or too frequent action; Any urinary trouble tells of kidney ills.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure all kidney ills. Hopkinsville people testify to this. James A. Twyman, brick mason of 1260 South Virginia street, says: "Disorders of the kidneys brought on in my case so sharp and continued a succession of pains and aches throughout my back that I could not rest comfortably at night and arose in the morning lame and sore. I was tired and worn out from morning to night. The kidney secretions were irregular, high-colored and scalding and deposited a heavy sediment if allowed to stand. I had no energy left and felt generally run down. I was feeling worse than usual when my attention was attracted by an advertisement of Doan's Kidney Pills and I got a box at L. A. Johnson's drug store and began using them. In a few days I noticed that the secretions had assumed a natural appearance and the pain and aching had been greatly relieved and by the time I had completed the box there was a wonderful change in my condition. I am glad to state that I am practically cured and Doan's Kidney Pills will be my friend for life." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. FOR HUNGRY PUPILS

(Special to New Era.)

NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—Commander Eva Booth, of the Salvation Army, is interesting herself in providing food for the 70,000 school children in New York whom Robert Hunter, sociologist, declares daily go to the schoolroom hungry.

In a letter addressed to City Supt. Maxwell she announces that the Salvation Army is willing to establish stations in the poorer sections where actually hungry children may secure proper food. Supt. Maxwell has expressed accord with the move and will refer the matter to the Board of Superintendents.

CAMPAIGN ON SIN. SUITS FOR DAMAGES AN ECHO OF RECENT SMALLPOX SCARE.

WILL BE INAUGURATED IN LOUISVILLE.

Great Religious Revival Will Begin There Next Sunday.

A campaign against the forces of Satan will begin in Louisville Sunday, February 13, and be continued two weeks. Seventeen meetings in various parts of the three Falls Cities will be held every evening, and at least twenty evangelists will be engaged in the work of soul-winning. Nearly all of them will be accompanied by their singers, and the revival will thus be in the hands of experts, trained in persuading the unconverted.

Twenty denominations and 130 churches will be involved. It is the expectation that 10,000 souls will be won to salvation. In the revival recently completed in Denver 6,000 persons were received into the various churches. The population of Denver is 133,000.

At the head of the small army of evangelists will be the Rev. Dr. Joseph P. Calhoun, of Pittsburg. With him will be an array of successful revival workers, and co-operating with them will be a large body of local Protestant clergy.

Louisville, New Albany and Jeffersonville have been divided into districts, and each district is being carefully canvassed, so that statistics will be furnished to the executive committee at its headquarters in the Y. M. C. A. building, Fourth avenue and Broadway, by which the exact religious status of any Louisville family may be ascertained.

A host of personal workers will attend the meetings to talk with the unconverted. They have been drawn from the congregations engaged in the revival and from the theological seminaries in Louisville.

Committees have been appointed for the various departments of the work. At the head of them all is Dr. Calhoun, the commander-in-chief of the campaign. The Rev. Dr. W. W. Hamilton, of McFerran Memorial Baptist church, who first issued the call for the meeting in Louisville, is chairman of the executive committee, and may be called Dr. Calhoun's chief-of-staff. The Rev. Dr. A. H. Jolly, of Pittsburg, who has been here two weeks as organizer, and whose services have been valuable on account of his work under Dr. Calhoun in the successful Pittsburg revival, will leave on the eve of the campaign, it being impossible for him to remain away from his congregation longer than that time.

THREE BROUGHT IN THE COUNTY COURT.

TWO HAVE BEEN TRIED.

City Won First and the Jury Found For Plaintiff In Second.

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

Three quite unusual suits to test the authority of the board of health in the recent smallpox scare are now occupying the attention of the county court.

Saturday the suit of W. J. Powell against the city board of health for $40 was heard and the jury returned a verdict in favor of the defendant. The plaintiff sued for $40 which he claimed he lost while quarantined on account of two cases of smallpox being under the same roof. The suit of T. J. Guthrie was heard this morning and a verdict returned in favor of the plaintiff for $33. The city will take an appeal.

The other suit is that of W. B. Guthrie. All the suits were filed on the same grounds, that the plaintiffs may recover from the city the amount lost to them in salary and other causes while they were quarantined.

Feed the Quail.

(Communicated)

Every farmer should feed the partridges on his farm while the snow is on the ground. Two weeks is as long a siege of hunger as these birds can stand. Snow has already been on the ground one week and there is prospect of staying there sometime. Clean off a little space in a field where no stock are running, put out a quart to a peck of screening from wheat each day. It will save your partridges from starvation.

AMERICAN PEOPLE

A proclamation addressed to the "American people" is promulgated from the various state capitals under the auspices of the National Grange, Patrons of Husbandry and various national labor and agricultural organizations, declaring that Washington's birthday be observed as "Farm, Home and Factory Day." It advises that upon this day the people concentrate their thoughts upon the conditions for the betterment of the home, farm and factory. The proclamation recites a number of reforms as the object of the movement, among them being government authority over railroads "sufficient to abolish unjust rates and discrimination"; a parcel post permitting packages up to eleven pound weight and a post check currency system.

The proclamation urges every one to communicate with his congressman in Washington in behalf of these measures. It is signed by Gov. Brooks, of Wyoming; Gov. Herrick, of Ohio; Gov. Elrod, of South Dakota, who excludes parcel postage from his approval; Aaron Jones, master of the National Grange, and various officers of labor organizations.

MR. THOMPSON DIES SUDDENLY AT HOT SPRINGS.

A WEALTHY AND PROMINENT CITIZEN

END WAS UNEXPECTED.

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

A telegram received this afternoon from the management of the Waukesha Hotel at Hot Springs, Ark., announces the death of Charles A. Thompson.

The despatch states that he died suddenly at the hotel last night.

The news will come as a shock to all of his friends.

Mr. Thompson left here last Tuesday for Hot Springs. His daughter, Mrs. Frank H. Bassett and her children are in Florida and his son-in-law, Mr. Bassett, is in Oklahoma City. Relatives in Pembroke have been notified and arrangements for having the remains sent here will be completed this afternoon.

Mr. Thompson was a son of the late G. O. Thompson, a pioneer business man of Hopkinsville, and was himself for years a leading merchant. He retired from active participation in business some years ago and devoted himself to private interests. He was one of the city's wealthiest men.

Mr. Thompson was a gentleman of keen intellect and bright wit. His impulses were generous and his nature genial. He was a charter member of Hopkinsville lodge No. 545, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks.

what it is, serving on public boards a number of times. He endorses Peruna in the following words:
"I am 68 years old, am hale and hearty, and Peruna has helped me attain it. Two years ago I had la grippe—my life was despaired of. Peruna saved me."—J. R. Guill.

A Relative of Abraham Lincoln.
Mr. Silas S. Lincoln, who resides at 918 I Street, N. W., Washington, D. C., has the honor of being third cousin to Abraham Lincoln. He writes:
"I had la grippe five times before using your medicine. Four years ago I began the use of Peruna, since which time I have not been troubled with that disease. I can now do as much work at my desk as I ever could in my life. I have gained more than ten pounds in weight."—S. S. Lincoln.

Pe-ru-na Not Only Cured La Grippe but Benefited the Whole System.

Miss Alice M. Dressler, 1313 N. Bryant Ave., Minneapolis, Minn., writes:
"Last spring I suffered from la grippe and was partially cured but the bad after effects remained through the summer and somehow I did not get strong as I was before. One of my college friends who was visiting me asked me to try Peruna and I did so and found it all more than I had expected. It not only cured me of the catarrh but restored me to perfect health, built up the entire system and brought a happy feeling of buoyancy which I had not known for years."—Alice M. Dressler.

An Actress' Testimonial.

Miss Jean Cowgill, Griswold Opera House, Troy, N. Y., is the leading lady with the Ambrey Stock Co. She writes the following:

"During the past winter of 1901, I suffered for several weeks from a severe attack of grippe, which left a serious catarrhal condition of the throat and head.
"Some one suggested Peruna. As a last resort, after wasting much time and money on physicians, I tried the remedy faithfully, and in a few weeks was as well as ever."—Jean Cowgill.

A Southern Judge Cured.

Judge Horatio J. Goss, Hartwell, Ga., writes:

"Some five or six years ago I had a very severe spell of grippe, which left me with systemic catarrh. A friend advised me to try your Peruna which I did, and was immediately benefited and cured. The third bottle completed the cure."—H. J. Goss.

NEW CAPITOL WILL BE BUILT.

House Passes Bill and Governor's Signature Makes it a Law.

(Special to New Era.)

FRANKFORT, KY., Feb. 8.—The house of representatives this morning passed the compromise bill recommended by the conference committee.

The vote was 63 to 14.

It is now up to Gov. Beckham to sign the bill and it will become a law.

The bill provides for the purchase of the Hunt property as the site for the new Capitol, and leaves it to the discretion of the Capitol commission whether the additional block desired by some members of the general assembly shall be purchased or not.

The senate passed the bill yesterday by a vote of 24 to 4.

The legislature will probably adjourn tomorrow.

STATEHOOD BILL.

(Special to New Era.)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—After a continuous sitting of nearly nine hours the senate last evening at 8:45 o'clock passed the Statehood bill.

It provides for statehood for Oklahoma and Indian Territory as one state and New Mexico as another state. Arizona is left out and will appeal to the next congress for admission as a separate state in case the bill passed by the senate is occurred in by the house. The bill originated in the house and will go to conference.

EXPOSES THE PLOT

TO MURDER JAMES B. MARCUM

French Told Feltner That Hargis Wanted the Lawyer Killed.

(Special to New Era.)

WINCHESTER, KY., Feb. 8.—The deposition of Moses Feltner, charged with contempt of court in not testifying in the recent Marcum-Hargis damage suit, was taken before a notary public. The defendant made sensational statements, among them that he was approached by B. F. French, who stated that the Hargis must have J. B. Marcum killed and that Feltner was wanted to commit the murder. Feltner said he consulted, but later changed his mind. The plans were to shoot Marcum either from the college building or from the courthouse. He said Tom White refused to fire from the courthouse because at that time Marcum had his child in his arms. Monday night Feltner was handed a letter threatening him if he should give his deposition yesterday. He was informed that he would be prosecuted for robbing the mails, for killing one James Frazier and for other crimes. The letter was given to the Sheriff, who sent it to Judge Benton, who is holding court at Richmond. The deposition of Sam Fields, arrested on the same charge as Feltner, will be taken today.

Feltner's stated that French, offered him $1,000 to leave Winchester without testifying, and said that if he did not go he would be hanged for the murder of Jesse Fields some time ago in Breathitt County. Feltner says he accepted the money, went to Cincinnati and turned it over to his brother, Felix Feltner. When he (Moses Feltner) was met in Cincinnati by Mr. French and was told to stay where he was, as warrants had been issued for him in many counties in Kentucky bordering on the Ohio River. French told him, according to Feltner's deposition, that his bond had been vacated in the Fields' murder case and that a warrant would be sent to Cincinnati for him, but that he must not come back to Kentucky.

French gave him more money, and after spending some time in various Ohio towns and Indianapolis, Feltner says he concluded to return to Kentucky and give himself up as a witness.

Notice.

All persons holding claims against the estate of Jessie Means, deceased, will file them with me or Frank Riven, attorney, properly proven according to law on or before the first day of March, 1906. L. L. Nichols, administrator.

Murder Cases.

The extra session of the Hopkins county circuit court, which had been going on for four weeks, closed Saturday afternoon, after the civil docket was completely cleared. The February term of court began Monday. Louis Wilbert, who killed Gus McIntosh, at Mannington, will be tried. There are two other murder cases on the docket, but it is doubtful whether they will be tried at this term of court.

Mr. Lander's Death.

From Wednesday's Daily)
W. C. Lander, of Princeton, Ky., aged seventy-seven years, died at that place last night. He had been an invalid for some time. He was a brother of the late Mrs. Stevenson, of this city. He had for many years been a member of the Baptist church. The interment will take place at Princeton.

RAISE VALUATIONS.

The Christian county board of supervisors have completed their work, by raising the property valuation on $100,000, which will bring the amount up to $1,000,000.

STANLEY DISCUSSES IMPORTANT MEASURES NOW BEFORE CONGRESS

Roosevelt is a New Convert to Democratic Doctrine.—The Tobacco Bill.

Congressman A. O. Stanley has returned to Washington after spending several days at home on legal business. To the Henderson Gleason he told of some of the important measures before congress as follows:

TOBACCO BILL.

"Concerning the tobacco business, the bill that passed the house is in the hands of the state committee. All the Democrats and a few Republicans are in sympathy with it. The committee will so postpone the bill that it will not pass the session. While the friends of the movement are not in the least deterred by delay, as we every day have more and more assurance that it will be passed. The removal of the tax on tobacco in the natural leaf is a long way from satisfying the demands of the tobacco grower and is but an entering wedge, the friends of the movement hope ultimately to remove the tax from stemmed, handpressed and twist tobacco, and when this is done it will be immediately productive of substantial benefit to the tobacco grower.

"It is estimated by conservative handlers of tobacco who know, that very considerable of the tobacco which is now shipped abroad will find immediate sale at home if it were not for this six cent war tax. If, for instance, we now had free trade in leaf tobacco and in the twist, the farmers of Henderson county ought to be able to dispose of twenty per cent of the crop to immediate consumers, which should enable him to weather the storm and thus prevent the practical confiscation of his crop by the trust."

RAILROAD RATE BILL.

When asked as to the railroad freight rate bill Mr. Stanley said:

"The thing immediately occupying the attention of congress is the proposed enlargement of the powers of the interstate commerce commission.

"There is a general impression that the president of the United States is the daddy of this new movement, (so called) since he has mentioned it in his last message.

"Nothing could be more erroneous. When this interstate commerce commission was first brought into existence by the courage and patriotism of the Democrats, it had the powers and exercised them, and the present legislation is in effect restoring to the commission the authority it formerly possessed and of which it was deprived by the peculiar construction of the law creating it, in other words to declare reasonable freight rates and to prohibit unreasonable and exorbitant charges. Pursuant to this a long time after its creation, it declared various rates to be illegal and established in lieu thereof just and equitable charges for transportation of freight from one state to another.

"The authority of the interstate commerce commission to regulate freight rates was brought before the United States supreme court and was there held that this commission had a right to declare a rate unreasonable, illegal or exorbitant, when investigation showed it was too high, but that they had no authority to fix any rate in lieu thereof. With the result if a road charged forty cents a ton between points in different states, this matter was brought before the commission and they after a long and expensive investigation came to the conclusion that a rate was exorbitant and unjust, they could so declare it, and had the right so to declare.

"The railroads under this decision of the supreme court could escape all the benefits which the people derive from investigation by this commission and from their prohibition of a dishonest and exorbitant charge, by simply charging 30 cents and 9 mills for the transportation of the next ton of freight between those two points in the next session, instead of forty cents. In that way they could truthfully say they were not charging the prohibited rate, and since this commission had no right to fix a rate, the people were deprived of any protection whatever from this commission, which was in this way stripped of all real authority by the interpretation of the act creating it, by the supreme court.

"After the rendition of this decision, the Democratic party did not question the authority of the supreme court, but declared that if the act creating this commission was not broad enough to give it this authority, no time ought to be lost in passing a bill which would supply the defect discovered by the astute counsel for the railroads and restore to the people the real protection which they had formerly enjoyed from this commission.

"The Congressional Record shows that John Sharp Williams, the minority leader, with his party behind him almost to a man, for years has pleaded with the Republicans, who for some reason had a peculiar weakness for railroads, to restore to the interstate commerce commission the beneficent powers which it possessed before it was emasculated by judicial interpretation.

"So patient, so able and so persuasive has been the eloquence and so invincible the arguments of the Democratic leaders fighting for years in this good cause, that at last they have convinced a Republican President. I only wish I could say the same for his party.

DOUBTING PRESIDENT.

"The doubting President has certainly stirred up a hornet's nest among his own people and the fight from this on is among the Republicans, who see that the time for some legislation has inevitably arrived, and that they will have to accomplish by cunning what they are no longer able to obtain by force, and to submit to the House some bill prepared or at least inspired by a Republican railroad lawyer which will sound as if it was intended to restrict the powers of the railroad, but under the cover of cunning phraseology will only veil the fatal defects which they themselves will smilingly expose, when the new act enlarging the commission is again put to the crucial test of judicial interpretation.

"If the purpose of the Democrats is possible, either to get a bill of their own, or since that is probably impossible, to get enough Republicans who are courageous and patriotic enough to escape or withstand the baneful influences of these great corporations, to support them in an amendment written in plain, concise and vigorous English, and which will give us an Interstate Commerce Commission which can make decisions regulating interstate commerce, which will really regulate it, to give them substance and not the shadow of authority.

"The Democrats in Congress are unhesitatingly endorsing anything that the President says looking to this end. They all, however, recognize in him not the herald of a new political doctrine, but a very new convert to an old time-worn, battle-scarred Democratic principle, which not even the voluminous message of the President can disguise.

"This is our baby and it springs from Democratic loins, and the President himself must acknowledge its proud ancestry when he proposes to stand as its god-father before the people."

KILLED BY CARS.

Ed Pendleton, son of J. R. Pendleton, a druggist of Guthrie, was killed there Monday at 5 o'clock by the cars. He was employed by the L. & N. railroad company as assistant car repairer. He was twenty years old and unmarried.

THIRTEEN TO HANG

KENTUCKY MAKES A STARTLING RECORD.

Four Others Convicted Secured New Trials—Waiting For Death.

There are thirteen men under the death sentence in Kentucky. This is a startling announcement to say the least. Probably at no time in the history of the state has there been thirteen men at one time awaiting death on the gallows. It is, perhaps a record equaled by no other state. There are four others who have been given the extreme penalty who have been given new trials by the court of appeals, among the number being Caleb Powers, three times convicted of complicity in the murder of Governor William Goebel.

In this city four negroes are sentenced to death for the atrocious Pembroke murder, three were granted new trials—two by the court of appeals, one by the circuit judge and the fourth, Geo. Holland is to be hanged on July 6.

In the Jefferson county jail at Louisville, as stated Tuesday by the New Era, there are five men under the death sentence. William Van Dalsen, convicted of the murder of his mistress, Fanny Porter, will hang on February 24. The other prisoners in the Jefferson county jail under a sentence of death are George Warner, Jacob Blachoff, James Thomas and Edward Brown. The last two named are negroes.

In the Fayette county jail at Lexington are John Taylor and James Garfield Smith, negroes, recently given the death penalty for the murder of William Moore, a white man, in a saloon on November 20. Ed Taylor was given the death penalty at 12:30 o'clock Sunday morning, after the jury had considered the case for only three minutes.

Confined in cells at the Covington jail in Kenton county are two of the most noted prisoners under the death sentences—Curt Jett and Tom White, convicted of the murder of James Marcum at Jackson. They were tried in Winchester, Ky., last summer. They are now asking for a new trial before the appellate court.

In the Owensboro jail a negro and a white man are under death sentences. They are Roy Green, who is to hang on February 17 for the murder of James Coomes at the fair grounds in July and Robert Mathley, convicted of the murder of Emma Watkins. His case is now before the appellate court on a motion for a new trial.

Besides the above thirteen men who are sentenced to hang there are a number of murder trials before the different courts. It is expected that before summer several more will be given the extreme penalty.

To the citizens of other states, principally the Northern ones, the announcement that thirteen men are under sentence to hang in Kentucky will, doubtless, cause no little surprise. By false reports sent out concerning "reckless bloodshed" and the non-enforcement of the law in murder cases by the Kentucky courts, people have been led to believe that no murderer was ever punished. Three of those sentenced to be hanged killed women, one in the Owensboro jail and two in the Louisville jail.

MESSAGE FROM COUNT TOLSTOI.

Says Russian Troubles Lie Deeper Than Wish For Personal Freedom.

(Cablegram.)
LONDON, Feb. 9.—Count Vladimir Tschertkoff, literary agent of Count Leo Tolstoi, famous Russian writer and exponent of social conditions in the czar's domains, has given out a summary of a pronouncement which Tolstoi will shortly issue. This pronouncement will deal with lessons drawn from the present troubles in Russia. The summary follows:

1. All governments, whether monarchial, constitutional or republican, are nothing more than organized institutions which, being immune from punishment, have the power to punish others, to plunder and rob.

2. Neither the Russian working-men nor the intellectuals are true exponents of the people's real needs.

3. Those elementary measures which they demand from the government, like freedom of person, speech and conscience, although essential conditions for a life of culture, do not touch the central problem, which is the nationalization and communism of land. From neither the working-men nor intellectuals of Russia or other countries do we hear the crying needs of the people.

4. There exists in other countries a so-called free and independent press, but its freedom is only apparent; for the whole press is controlled by wealthy persons, who admit no advancement of the people. We have only to observe the fate of Henry George's nationalization scheme to see the truth of this.

5. The only possibility of a change of the general policy lies in perfecting the individual, morally and religiously.

When there is a real respect for others, lack of gentleness, hatred and brute force all disappears.

WILL IT CURE ME?

That's the personal question a woman asks herself when she reads of the cures of womanly diseases by the use of Dr.
Pierce's Favorite Prescription.
Why shouldn't it cure her? Thousands of such cases have been cured by "Favorite Prescription." Is it a condition which local doctors have declared incurable? Among the hundreds of thousands of sick women cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription there are a great many who were pronounced incurable by local doctors. Wonders have been worked by "Favorite Prescription" in the cure of irregularity, weakening drains, inflammation, ulceration and female weakness. It always helps. It almost always cures.

"I commenced taking your medicine, 'Favorite Prescription,' nearly a year ago for chronic inflammation of womb, and can truly say it is the only thing that ever did me any good," writes Mrs. L. C. Wagner, of 123 Edwin Street, Toronto, Ontario, Canada. "I could not walk any distance before using it. After taking six bottles of your 'Favorite Prescription' I find I can walk without difficulty and am greatly benefited in general health.
Would advise all suffering women to use Dr.
Pierce's medicine."

These are the Original Little Liver Pills, first put up over 40 years ago, by Dr. R. V.
Pierce. They're the smallest, easiest to take and best. They're tiny, sugar-coated, anti-bilious granules, a compound of refined and concentrated vegetable extracts.
Without disturbance or trouble, constipation, indigestion, bilious attacks, sick and bilious headaches, and all derangements of the liver, stomach, and bowels are prevented, relieved, and cured. Permanently cured, too, by their mild and natural action, these little Pills gently lead the system into natural ways again. Their influence lasts.

With the passing of the old superstition that consumption was a hereditary disease attacking only those whose parents or immediate relatives had been victims of it, and the establishment of the conviction that it is a communicable disease, and that the child of a consumptive is no more liable to it than any other person of like constitution, similarly exposed, the prevention and cure of tuberculosis has been the subject of more scientific investigation than any other malady that afflicts the human being.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear.
There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube.
When this tube is inflamed you have a rambling sound of imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

LESSON VI, FIRST QUARTER, INTER-NATIONAL SERIES, FEB. 5.

Text of the Lesson, John iv. 5-14.
Memory Verses, 13, 14—Golden Text,
Rev. xiii. 17—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

[Copyright, 1905, by American Press Association.]

The scene of today's lesson is Samaria, and the center is Jacob's well on a piece of ground which Jacob bought of Shechem, son of Hamor, which afterward became the inheritance of Joseph, where also the body of Joseph was buried (Josh. xxiv. 32; Gen. xxxiii.
19). We are always taught in connection with this lesson to think of Jacob's well, but I was recently reminded by a missionary home on furlough that there must be some reason for mentioning the parcel of ground belonging to Joseph. Two thoughts are suggested: Joseph was a fruitful bough by a well whose branches run over the wall, and here is the true Joseph reaching over the Jewish wall to the Samaritans and bearing much fruit (Gen. xlix. 22-24).

The topic in last week's lesson was the necessity of the new birth and the searching truth that even the most religious must be born again. Here we have the blessed assurance that the greatest sinner may be born again and greatly used to win others to Christ.
The heart of the lesson is the Lord Jesus Himself and His seven sayings to the woman in verses 7, 10, 13-14, 16, 17-18, 21-24, 26. Weary and thirsty, we see in Him one who can truly sympathize with us, touched with a feeling of our infirmities, tempted in all points like as we are, yet without sin (Heb.
iv. 15). According to John's method of counting time, it was either 6 a. m. or 6 p. m. when Jesus rested by the well.
Compare chapter xix. 14. His first request of the woman, "Give me to drink," reminds us of one of His seven words from the cross, "I thirst" (xix.
28). He was literally weary, hungry and thirsty as He sat thus by the well, yet He was refreshed without actual food or drink (verses 32, 34).

His chief hunger and thirst was and is for the souls of sinners. Have you refreshed him, and are you doing it daily by winning others? His second word to the woman (verse 20) takes us back to Gen. i. 6, 7, waters above and waters below; also to Jer. ii. 13, the fountain and the broken cisterns, and onward to Rev. xxi. 6; xlii. 17, the water of life freely given. Isa. lv. 1; Ezek.
xlvii. 9, might also be considered with much profit.

Thus only can we become wells of water springing up. In last lesson we saw the water to be the word, and the only way to receive Christ, who is Himself the living bread and the living water, is by believing His word, which is full of spirit and life (chapter
vi. 63). In the majority of believers the water in their well is very low, and it is difficult to obtain any from them because they do not let the word of Christ dwell in them richly according to Col. iii. 16. In our Lord's fourth and fifth words (verses 4-6) He laid bare to the woman her inner sinful life, for only those who realize that they are sinners and nothing but sinners before God can appreciate a Saviour. He cannot not to call the righteous, but sinners, and we must see ourselves as helpless as the bitten Israelites before we will care to look believingly upon Him who was made sin for us. Being convicted of sin, she did as so many do—tried to escape by saying, "I do not belong to your church;
you worship in Jerusalem, but we in this mountain." She did not say that she worshiped or professed to worship, but spoke of her people, "our fathers."

In His sixth word (verses 21-24) He turns her to God the Father as seeking not places, but hearts, of people and sincerity, for while man looketh on the outward appearance the Lord looketh on the heart, and "He is not a Jew which is one outwardly, neither is that circumcision which is outward in the flesh, but he is a Jew which is one inwardly, and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, not in the letter, whose praise is not of men, but of God" (I Sam. xvi. 7; Rom. ii. 28, 29).
How much there is in many a church which passes before men as worship, but which in the sight of God is only a mockery and an abomination and of which He says, "Vain oblations. . . .
feasts my soul hateth!" (Isa. i. 13, 14).
The Father is seeking for those who in prayer and praise and meditation hold heart communion with Him, that He may reveal Himself to such and show Himself strong on their behalf (II Chron. xvi. 9).

The woman's reference to Messiah,
the Christ (see chapter i. 41), draws forth His last word, "I that speak unto thee am He" (verse 26). The work is done, her eyes behold her Saviour, her heart receives Him, her errand is forgotten, the waterpot is left by the well, she even seems to forget that she is a woman, and, hastening back to the city, she earnestly proclaims that she has seen the Christ. Her heart is occupied with Him, she forgets herself, and great are the results. Many believed on Him because of her testimony, they constrained Him to abide with them two days, and many more believed because of His own word (verses 39-42).

Let all women consider this woman,
and also that the first messenger after His resurrection was Mary Magdalene, and let no one hesitate to witness for Him because of what men may say.
Let all consider that the disciples had just been in that city, but, as far as we know, uttered not a word about the Christ whom they had left sitting by the well, for they went to the city to buy meat (verse 8). Is your first thought preaching Christ or something to eat?

LESSON VII, FIRST QUARTER, INTER-NATIONAL SERIES, FEB. 12.

Text of the Lesson, John iv, 43-54.
Memory Verses, 48-51—Golden Text,
John v, 36—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

[Copyright, 1905, by American Press Association.]

Two days He abode in Samaria and was refreshed by seeing many receive Him as the Christ, the Saviour of the world, a foreshadowing of the time when from all nations His church should be gathered, (the age in which we are now living), and of a later age, beyond the present, when through Israel all nations shall be won to Him, a fulfillment of the word, "His own received Him not, but as many as received Him, to them He gave the right to become the sons of God" (John i, 12). The first two verses of this lesson are a little perplexing because they seem to say that He went into His own country, for a prophet hath no honor in his own country. Yet the third verse says that the Galileans received Him, having seen all the things that He did at Jerusalem. Nazareth, where He had been brought up, is called His own country (Luke iv, 16, 23, 24), and though He went to Galilee, He did not at this time go to Nazareth, and these verses may signify that, though He went to Galilee, He did not go to Nazareth, because a prophet hath no honor in his own country.

Some say that He did not immediately go into Galilee from Jerusalem, but delayed two days in Samaria to allow time for those who witnessed His miracles at Jerusalem to return home and prepare the minds of the people for a favorable reception of Him. We learned in our last lesson that He counted it His meat to do the will of Him that sent Him, and in chapter v, 44, He says, "How can ye believe which receive honor one of another and seek not the honor that cometh from God only?" So these verses might imply that He went into Galilee and later even to Nazareth (as we know He did), because He sought honor only from God and not from man, and came to do the Father's will, whatever it might be and wherever it might lead.

If the nobleman (certainly, margin) who came to Him at Cana on behalf of his son was Chuza, Herod's steward, then Luke viii, 3, may be a sequel to verse 53 of our lesson, for we there read that Joanna, the wife of Chuza, Herod's steward, and Susanna and many others ministered unto Him of their substance. At Cana He had at the marriage feast manifested forth His glory and increased the faith of His disciples (chapter ii, 11), and here that miracle of making water into wine is indicated. I refer to it because so many today seek to set aside all the supernatural, but the Bible is supernatural or nothing. Jesus is God or else He is not good.

The boy for whom the father pleads is not only ill, but at the point of death, as was also Jairus' daughter (Mark v, 23), but nothing is too hard for our Lord. It matters not how ill or what the disease, or even if the person has died or been buried, the same word that said, "Let there be light," can give light or life or health in a moment. He says, "Believest thou that I am able to do this?" And then, "According to your faith be it unto you." The nobleman entreated Jesus to come down to Capernaum and heal his son, not knowing that His actual presence was not essential to the healing, but having faith that if Jesus would only come to him He could heal him. Jesus gently tested him, for He never tries any one above that they are able, but his faith seems only to strengthen, and he grows more importunate. Then our Lord says: "Go thy way. Thy son liveth."

This was not as the nobleman expected. It was different from what He had thought. It was in one sense more than he expected, but there was power in the word, and it grasped his heart, and the glorious word is written, "The man believed the word that Jesus had spoken unto him, and he went his way" (verse 50).

The next day as he was nearing home his servants met him with the joyful news, "Thy son liveth!" and on inquiring when his boy began to mend he learned that it was at the very hour on the previous day when Jesus said, "Thy son liveth." It must have thrilled him with joy to hear from his servants the very words that Jesus had said to him the day before. But what joy there was in that home which he had left in such gloom the day before! And all through the love and power of one who gave them life and breath and all things! But up to this time they had only heard of Him, but had not known Him. Now they knew Him and believed in Him. Even the whole household accepted Him as God their Saviour.

One has said that in this miracle we see His omnipotence, in that He healed the sick child; His omnipresence, in that He healed him at a distance of several miles; His omniscience, in that He knew that His word was effectual, as the words testified. When the disciples were sent to bring the ass' colt and to prepare the passover and to go forth without purse or scrip, assured that they would be cared for, they always found it just as He said. Every promise and prophecy either has been fulfilled or will yet be fulfilled exactly as it is written. Blessed are all who believe, for there shall be a fulfillment of all things told them in the book. The Scripture cannot be broken. If sickness or any other affliction or trial shall bring us to this firm faith in God and in His word it will be a most blessed experience. But why not love without the affliction?

Talmage Sermon

By Rev. Frank De Witt Talmage, D. D.

Los Angeles, Cal., Feb. 5.—That God has a purpose and a design in permitting trouble and sorrow to continue in the world is claimed by the preacher in this sermon on the mysteries of life; text, Genesis xviii, 14, "Is anything too hard for the Lord?"

"God is a spirit, infinite, eternal and unchangeable in his being, wisdom, power, holiness, justice, goodness and truth." This is the definition of God found in the Westminster Shorter Catechism. No man or body of men could give a complete definition of all that God is. His nature transcends all human conception. Language fails in the attempt to describe his infinite perfection. Strive as we may, we realize that he is far beyond all that we can think or imagine. Probably no one has framed an utterance that comes so near to the truth as this of the Westminster divines, and though it is confessedly inadequate, it stands unparalleled in the struggle to reach the unattainable.

It is a strange story that is told of its origin. The convocation of the Westminster divines was drawing to its close. For nearly six long years, since July 1, 1643, they had been meeting almost daily in the famous hall of Westminster which now bears their name. They had organized for the church a "directory of public worship" and had almost finished the larger and the shorter catechisms. Their work was practically finished with but one exception. They could not frame a definition which would clearly, comprehensively and completely answer the question, "What is God?" At last, in the midst of a heated debate, a young man who was comparatively an obscure member arose and said, "Let us pray." Then he commenced his prayer in the simple words: "O God, thou who art a spirit, infinite, eternal and unchangeable in thy being, wisdom, power, holiness, justice, goodness and truth, teach us what thou art!" "With that," so says tradition, "all the members of the Westminster convocation leaped to their feet, crying: 'That is our definition of what is God.' It is an inspiration from his throne." So it was inserted in the catechism as the best and fullest definition that could be made of the Being whose attributes are beyond human knowledge.

Hard to Comprehend. Many profess to believe that God is omnipotent, omnipresent and omniscient, yet it is awfully hard for us in truth to comprehend this. We say, "He can do all things." But when some one begins to pin our faith down to a practical illustration of "Can God do this?" we say, like Nicodemus, "How can these things be?" We need constantly to remember that there are no limitations to the divine power and that all that he has promised he is abundantly able to perform. When we see some gigantic evil that needs to be removed; when we think of some benefit that seems necessary to the world, our hearts often sink in despair as we regard it as impossible. Then new courage and new hope ought to fill our minds as we reflect on the omnipotence of the God in whom we trust and to say with the angel who talked with Abraham's wife, "Is anything too hard for the Lord?" A great flood of inspired light now fills your soul. You answer: "No, no; nothing is impossible for God. God is a spirit, infinite, eternal and unchangeable in his being, wisdom, power, holiness, justice, goodness and truth."

God is all powerful, all present and all seeing. You grant it. Then I would invite you to consider the natural influences of your belief. We ask ourselves why a God of unlimited power does not remove some of the evils that cause so much misery in the world. We know not.

Easy would it be if God wished to take all poverty out of the world. With a mere word he could create for every man a palace in which to live. With a mere word he could place that palace in the midst of a garden. With a mere word he could have rainbows playing hide and seek among the falling, springing, tumbling waters of the fountains of that garden. With a mere word he could have every man's table groaning under the richest treasures of orchards and gardens and fields. He could furnish to each home the finest of wardrobes and the most resplendent of jewels and the costliest of earthly treasures. The sheep upon a thousand hills all belong to God. The gold buried in the darkest of mines is his. The pearls glistening in the opened shells of the oysters lying by the coral reefs among the entangled "gardens of the seas" are all his. Yet this abundant wealth is to be obtained by men only by hard labor. It is his law that man shall work for the riches that are provided for him. God practically gives us nothing unless we are ready to work for it.

A Far Reaching Commandment. The far reaching commandment which God spoke to Adam of old he speaks to us: "Cursed be the ground for thy sake; in sorrow shalt thou eat of it all the days of thy life; thorns and thistles shall it bring forth to thee, and thou shalt eat the herb of the field; in the sweat of thy brow shalt thou eat bread till thou return unto the ground, for out of it was thou taken; for dust thou art, and unto dust thou shalt return."

thou art, and unto dust thou shalt return."

"Cursed be the ground for thy sake." I remember being struck with a practical illustration of what God meant by that sentence. Some years ago out in the country I was walking over the hillside overlooking a beautiful valley filled with rich farms. I said to the companion by my side: "Look! Did you ever see a more beautiful country than that? God is certainly a rich provider for his children." "Yes," answered my companion, "but did you ever stop to think that, though God's wealth is unlimited, he gives but few of the necessities to man unless man is ready to work for them? God gives us the soil; God gives us the seeds. But the essential food products which come from that soil must be developed by unceasing toil. This fact is emphatically true of all the cereals." Then I commenced to ponder over the words of my friend, and I said: "Yes, you are right. Never since the fall of man has God provided for man wheat or rye or corn unless man as a farmer will cultivate those cereals. All kinds of weeds may grow wild, all kinds of corns and thistles certainly do grow wild, but the cereals will not grow wild." From the earth man must obtain his bread. He must work or starve. The soil must be prepared; the seed must be sown; the harvest must be gathered.

His Power Limitless.

Let me remind you, too, how limitless are the energies which God has in his control. Everywhere are power and force, but man must patiently study and discover for himself how to apply them to his purposes. Very slowly has he learned the secrets of the world in which he is placed. God might have revealed the whole to him at the outset, but he wished him to find it out for himself, and as each source of power was discovered he must learn how to harness it aright that it may do his bidding and relieve him of toil. Go to Niagara falls and take your stand on the ledge of rock called Observation point and watch that rush of water descending from the heights. What power is there to light our cities, to bear our burdens, to illuminate our habitations! Yet for countless ages it has been running to waste because man did not know how to harness it aright. Stand on the seashore and see the power in the incoming tide. Quietly and resistlessly wave succeeds wave, breaking impotently on the rocks, yet there is power there that might be turned to account. The little streamlet that turns the wheel of the village mill, grinding the corn and wheat for a whole valley, is feeble beside the billows of the sea. This, too, man may yet learn to harness that it may work for him. The secret is with the Lord. Man must plan and contrive and design before he can master it. So long as he sits at ease and makes no effort it is useless to him. Why should not God have given man this knowledge at the beginning? Because he wished him to develop his intellect. He wished to teach him that there was a reward for his labor. By the sweat of his brow he must gain his bread.

Ah, my friends, this problem that perplexes us, this distressing question of why God permits us to struggle along in poverty and hardship, finds its solution in the Bible. It was not vindictiveness or for his own sake that he cursed the ground. The sentence was beneficial and remedial. "Cursed is the ground for thy sake," God is allowing the thorns and the thistles to grow wild instead of the wheat and the barley. Why? By the baron thrusts of the thorns God is driving us closer and closer to himself. By putting us in the treadmill of unceasing daily toil God is teaching us to turn our eyes away from temptation. He is also teaching us to turn them toward himself. Work serves a useful purpose. Our toil and difficulty and sorrow are intended to draw us nearer to himself. When trust in God and love of him have filled the hearts of men, when the knowledge of God covers the earth as the waters cover the sea, then poverty will have fulfilled its mission and will be eliminated from this weary world, for then, says Isaiah, "Instead of the thorn shall come up the fig tree, and instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle tree, and it shall be to the Lord for a name, for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off." Oh, sinner, thank God today that he makes your callous hand stick to the plow of daily toil in order that your feet shall follow the narrow and straight groove of virtue and truth and purity and gospel consecration and right.

God could easily take out of this world all physical ailments if he would. He could change the invalid chairs of the homes, the operating tables of the hospitals, the medicine bottles of the drug stores, the ear trumpets of the deaf, the ambulance wagons and the anesthetics and the splints and the bandages of a military surgeon's outfit and make them as unsuitable and antiquated articles for modern use as the chopsticks of the Chinese would be for the Caucasian race or the sandals of an Arab chief would be for the short legged Eskimo of the arctic. He could at a mere word straighten the crooked limbs and loosen the dumb lips and strengthen the weak lungs. God did it in the past; he can do it now. God is the same yesterday, today and forevermore. But God does not take all sickness out of this world because he does not wish physical pain and suffering to cease to perform their spiritual mission in the world.

Must Perform Their Mission.

"A beneficent influence for pain and physical ailments." "Oh," says some one, "I do not believe that can be true. Can any good come from a flushed, fevered cheek or from a hacking cough or from a sleepless night? God is good. God is love. Therefore a good and a loving God does not wish his children to suffer any more than we."

earthly parent would want his children to be physically sick or in pain. Ask that mother as she gets up in the middle of the night to put cool handkerchiefs upon the hot brow of her child if she sees any blessing in sickness. Ask that father who takes his lovely daughter down to southern climes to burn out with the hot rays of the sun the microbes of a diseased lung if he can see any blessing in one of his dear children slowly fading away as a beautiful flower will fade and wither before the chilling breath of the autumnal frosts. Ask that child if he sees any blessing in pain when after night she must hear her mother groan under the gnawing advancement of a fatal cancer. When Christ was upon earth he never heard the suppliant cry of a leper but his hands cleansed away the scales. He never saw one possessed with the 'devils of disease,' mental or physical, unless he cast them forth, even though they were legion. How can there now be any blessing in physical pain when Christ's mission on earth was to heal the sick and be a divine physician to the body as well as to the soul?

Yes, my brother, blessings can come and do come from physical pain in two ways. First, in the influence of sickness upon those who are sick. You can read this truth in the looks of those who have been near to death's door. When Dante used to walk through the streets of the city of his adoption, the passersby would stop and look at him and in awe say, "There goes a man who has been in hell." When we see Christian men and women who have lain under the shadow of death in a sickroom we know they have had experiences which have influenced them even as Dante had when, with Virgil as his guide, he trod the hot, blistering sands where dwelt and agonized the multitudes of the "lost and the destroyed." We also know that their experiences of suffering have molded their lives for good, even as Samuel Johnson felt this experience in his own life. "I myself," said he, "was for some years totally regardless of religion. It had dropped out of my mind. It was at an early part of my life. Sickness brought it back, and I hope I have never lost it since." O man, is not this true of you? Do you suppose William McKinley could ever have uttered the Lord's Prayer with such feeling as he did that had not been lying upon an operating table in the Emergency hospital of the world's fair? Do you believe that Christ would be as near to you had you not talked with him in the midnight hour when the nurse was dozing in her chair by your bed? "Jesus, thou son of David, have mercy on me!" cried blind Bartimeus in his physical weakness to the passing Christ. "Jesus, thou son of David, have mercy on me!" we have cried to Christ in our physical torture. Do you not see any blessing in pain, any spiritual mission in physical suffering in your past life?

The Blessedness of Sickness.

Benedict is the sick bed for the invalid. Blessed is its influence upon those who come in touch also with the sanctified sufferer. Wendell Phillips would not have been as brave and as true a man as he was had his life not been inspired by the bravery of that sick wife who always kept saying to him: "Oh, Wendell, oh! God has a mission for you. While you are out battling in his name I will be here praying and waiting for you." Could any one read the eulogy Robert J. Burdette wrote about his dead wife and not realize that the frail little woman whom he for years carried around in his arms had a mighty mission in molding and developing her husband's life for spiritual good? By the letters my mother wrote me from her sick room and by the letters you have received from a sick wife or a sick daughter or a sick mother who was at that time in the shadow of death you know that some of God's mightiest agents for the salvation of the world are to be found among those of pale cheeks, thin hands and fevered brows. Oh, no, my friends, God will never take out of this world the spiritual mission of physical pain and suffering until, through those sufferings, the multitudes have been brought to confess Christ at the foot of the cross.

An Easy Task.

Easy would it be for God to make right might and to melt the iron heel of tyranny in the hot fires of his indignation and righteous wrath. Easy would it be for God to come forth with his great legions of angels and ride down the hillside of heaven upon the white charger of victory. Easy would it be for God to destroy his puny adversaries, as they are trying to destroy his kingdom on earth. How do I know this? In the first chapter of Proverbs I read that when the time shall draw near for God to hear his right and come to the defense of his children by the overthrow of his enemies God shall say: "I also will laugh at your calamity. I will mock when your fear cometh." God will easily overthrow his adversaries when the right time comes. But our own sin has its mission. The battle against sin can develop us, even as a youth can be developed in his struggles against the trials of the world.

Injustices have their beneficent mission? How else would you ever appreciate what the pardoning love of Christ meant unless you learned it through your willingness to forgive those who have "reviled you and persecuted you and have said all manner of evil against you falsely for my sake." Don't you remember how you were distressed by calumnies and false charges uttered by some malicious enemy? How angry and furious you were against the calumniator! You have learned your lesson now; you have learned how to forgive. Was it not in trying to overcome those bitternesses and hatreds that you were led into the realization of the truth that God is love and that we must forgive men their trespasses, even as our Father in heaven forgives us our trespasses. Oh, yes, injustices have their spiritual mission. They have taught us that the true gospel does not consist simply in showing how we should reach out our hands to our friends, but also how we should reach out loving hands to our enemies. In triumphing over the wrongs by which we are surrounded God is teaching us how, for his sake, we can triumph over our own evil selves.

Death Might Be Abolished.

Easy would it be for God to make death an impossibility. When Christ stood by the bier of "the only son of his mother, and she a widow," he was able to make a silent corpse open its eyes and sit up. He said, "Young man, I say unto thee, arise!" When Christ went to the tomb of dead Lazarus he said to Mary and Martha: "Thy brother is not dead. He is only asleep." Christ looked upon death, then in the same way you and I would stand over the crib in which slumbers one of our little children. We know that we can bend over the crib and kiss our little one and say: "Wake, baby. Papa is here." Then the baby will awake and come to our arms. Christ only had to speak, and Lazarus came forth. The day is coming when Christ will speak and all the family tombs and the lonely graves on western prairies and the wrecked and sunken hulks of the Atlantic and the Pacific oceans lying at the foot of coral reefs will give up their dead. But until that day death must reign, and only through death can we enter into life and into that land where there is no more death.

Has death no purpose in the divine economy? Have all the agonies and sorrows and bereavements no wise design? Ask that father who when he parted with his beloved child learned to love and trust God and lived a halcyon life ever after in the hope of once more clasping her in his arms. Ask that husband whose wife passed from his ken and whose days of loneliness drove him for comfort to him whose love brightens every sorrow. It is at a fearful cost that some men learn the lesson of faith, but once learned they bless even the loss that taught them.

Our earthly loss may mean our heavenly gain. The agonies of death may yet be swallowed up in victories that shall never die. There is a beautiful legend told in the far east a king was to make a long journey. He therefore sent ahead of him his representative to build for him a palace in which he might live while he sojourned there. He provided this forerunner liberally with money and supplies. When the representative of the king arrived in this faroff land he found there raging a great famine and plague. Thousands upon thousands of the people there were dying from hunger and the diseases resultant from starvation. So this representative of the king changed his gold into bread. He sold all the royal jewels and bought still more bread. Then he bartered away the king's raiment and his horses and chariots, and with the money he bought still more bread until all the people were fed and the famine was stopped. At first when the king heard what had been done he was very wroth. But when he found out how many lives had been saved with his money he honored his forerunner by making him prime minister.

An Old Legend.

A short time after this the king died. When he came to the gate of heaven, at first he was refused admittance, for he seemed to have no heavenly passport. Then the great King of kings came forth and said: "Let him in. Let him in. He has one of the finest mansions in heaven reserved for him." Then the King of kings took the trembling, frightened immortal along one of the chief boulevards of heaven and pointed to a mansion near the great white throne and said: "There is your palace. You have built it." "When and where did I build yonder palace?" asked the earthly king. Then the King of kings answered: "When your forerunner with your consent wiped away the tears of those starving people in that faroff land I caught those tears and changed them into jewels. Here they are glittering in your crown, which you will find in yonder palace. When he erected tombstones over the pauper graves of the dead I took those stones and lifted them into the stones of yonder walls. When he stilled the cries of the hungry begging for bread I transformed those sobbing into the songs of your everlasting triumph. Here is your palace, here your jeweled crown."

In this strange legend I find a message of consolation. Our gifts, our sorrows, our sacrifices, all the pain and sadness and weariness we bear, are not lost. They are intrusted to Christ, who uses them all in his ministry of love. The Divine Father accepts the offering and transforms it into a treasury of gems, an eternal palace, in which we shall live forever with our Lord. There we shall find our loved ones whom we lost; there our heartaches and tears take on the form of brilliant crowns, whose glory shall never fade, and in the terrible black winged monster of death we recognize the white winged angel of eternal life.

But though I have been talking about the things it would be easy for God to do I cannot close without uttering one word in reference to one of "God's impossibilities." It is easy for us to be saved if we will be saved in God's way. He has given his only begotten Son to die for us. He has given his Spirit to sanctify us. He has made it easy for us to be saved. But he will not save us against our own will. That is impossible even to God. We must yield to him, renounce our sin and accept his offer of salvation. O man, will you resist? Will you continue in rebellion? Will you not rather say: "I give myself to thee. Make me thine own child through Jesus Christ our Lord?"

OFFENSIVE CATARRH

I suffered for a long time with a bad case of Catarrh, and took a great deal of medicine without any benefit.

I had a continual headache, my cheeks had grown purple, my nose was always stopped up, my breath had a sickening and disgusting odor, and I coughed incessantly. I heard of your S. S. S. and wrote you. I commenced to use it, and after taking several bottles I was cured and have never since had the slightest symptom of the disease. MISS MARY L. STORM, Cor. 7th & Felix Sts., St. Joseph, Mo.

Wheeling, W. Va., May 29, 1903. I had Nasal Catarrh for years for which I used S. S. S. with very gratifying results. I tried local applications for some time, and getting no permanent relief I came to the conclusion that the seat of the trouble was in the blood. Knowing S. S. S. to be a good blood medicine I began its use, and after using it for some little while it did away entirely with the offensive mucus in the nostrils, and I did not have to hawk and spit, especially in the morning, to dislodge the catarrhal matter. 1627 South St. FRED H. PARSEY.

The filthy secretions and foul mucus that are continually dropping back into the throat, and their way into the stomach and are absorbed into the blood, Catarrh then becomes constitutional, and the only way to get rid of it is through the blood. Write us if you have Catarrh, and our physicians will advise you without charge. The Swift Specific Company, Atlanta, Ga.

BANKER BECKWITH SOLON A BANKRUPT DATES ARE FIXED

DIES AT HIS HOME IN OBERLIN.

Victim of Mrs. Chadwick—Had Refused to Take Food.

(Special to New Era.)
OBERLIN, O., Feb. 6.—Mr. C. T. Beckwith, president of the defunct Citizens' National Bank, of this city, died at 10:45 o'clock last night after two days of unconsciousness, during which dissolution was expected at any moment. Only the family surrounded the death bed of the banker. Mr. Beckwith was about 65 years of age. On December 14 last the Federal grand jury in Cleveland returned five indictments against Beckwith upon the charge of violating the national banking laws in connection with the loans made to Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick by the Citizens' National Bank, of Oberlin, of which deceased was the president. From the day of his arrest Beckwith's health failed rapidly, as a result of worry over his troubles. He frequently declared during his illness that he wanted to die. For several days prior to his death he refused to take food in any form. Death, however, resulted directly from heart trouble. The death of President Beckwith may materially weaken the case of forgery and conspiracy to misapply bank funds now charged against Mrs. Chadwick.

Brought to Asylum.

The Mayfield Monitor says: The news that R. N. Walker, of Water Valley, had become so deranged in mind that he had to be sent to the Hopkinsville asylum will be received with regret. He is a prominent citizen of Water Valley and has a wife and a fifteen-year-old daughter. His mind has been affected since Christmas and he became so violent at times that it took several persons to overpower and subdue him. The main trouble is that he tries to kill himself. A few weeks ago he tried to kill himself by hanging. He was brought here Friday afternoon and adjudged of unsound mind and sent to Hopkinsville Friday night in charge of his brother.

HEAVY MORTALITY

Number of Deaths in Louisville Unusually Large.

One hundred and five persons died in Louisville during the week which ended Saturday. This is the largest number of deaths for any week during the winter and comes within a few of being the largest number of deaths during any week in the history of the city. The largest number of deaths for any seven days was 115, which was the record made during January last year. The reason for the large number of deaths during the past week is the severely cold weather. Dr. M. K. Allen, the city health officer, explains the unusual number by showing that the deaths were among the very old and the very young, who are most easily affected by extremes in weather.

COMPANY IS SUED

Suit has been filed in the circuit clerk's office by Mrs. Sallie Burrus, formerly Mrs. Sallie Hampton, and J. W. Cross, administrator of John-son T. Hampton, against the Equitable Life Insurance company for the payment of a policy of $1,000, alleged to have been issued to Mr. Hampton prior to his death. It is claimed in the petition that all requirements were regularly met and the policy issued as usual and sent to the company's agent at Elkton who held it for several days. In the meantime it is claimed that the assured was taken suddenly ill and died on June 7, 1905 and that since then the company's agent has positively refused to deliver the policy although the plaintiffs were all the time ready and willing to pay the stipulated premium and did offer it to him.

Mr. Rogers is Christian county's representative in the Kentucky legislature.

The healthy old man wears his gray hair like a silver crown. What if he be threescore and ten if there is still fire in his eye, firmness in his step, command in his voice and wisdom in his counsel? He commands love and reverence. Yet how few wear the mantle of age with dignity. Dim eyed, querulous of speech, halting in step, childish in mind, they "lag superfluous on the stage" dragging out the fag end of life in a simple existence. The secret of a healthy old age is a healthy middle age. The man who takes care of his stomach, who keeps his body properly nourished, will find that the body does not fail him in old age. The great value of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery lies in the preservation of the working power of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. From the center is distributed the nourishment of the blood, the lime for the bones, phosphates for the brain and nerves. A sound stomach means a sound man. A man who keeps his stomach sound by the use of "Golden Medical Discovery" will wear the crown of gray hairs as befits a monarch, with dignity and ease.

The New Era is in receipt of the following, which is the first general order in regard to the great reunion to be held in Louisville:

Headquarters United Confederate Veterans,
New Orleans, La., Feb. 1, 1905.
General Orders
No. 23.

I. The commanding general announces that, according to the custom heretofore in force, which leaves to the commanding general and the department commanders the fixing of the date of the reunion, the Fifteenth Annual Reunion of the United Confederate Veterans will be held in the city of Louisville, Ky., on June 14, 15, and 16, 1905, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, respectively, those days having been named by our host as satisfactory.

II. The commanding general cannot attempt to enumerate the many attractions the glorious Commonwealth of Kentucky has to offer to the United Confederate Veterans, but he may say that no state in the Union can point with greater pride to the daring achievements of her men and women in the days of the early settlement of the country, headed by the great riflemen, Daniel Boone, and dauntless woman, Mrs. Woods; that none can present a grander array of noble Confederate sons than Albert Sidney Johnston, Dick Taylor, John H. Morgan, John B. Hood, John B.reckinridge, Simon Bolivar Buckner, Humphrey Marshall, George B. Crittenden, and scores of others that could be named; and he mentions with peculiar pride that to her belongs the honor of giving to the human race that great patriot, chivalrous leader and unstained Southern gentleman, JEFFERSON DAVIS, our first and only president.

III. The commanding general most heartily approves of the action which made the great city of Louisville the meeting point for the veterans in 1895. The inclemency of the weather at the reunion of 1900 practically set at naught the almost perfect arrangements that had been made for the pleasure of the wearers of the grey, and it was due to the generous and patriotic men and women (noted all over the world for their peerless beauty and matchless charms) that another opportunity should be given them to entertain the survivors of the Confederate armies.

These men and women are already devising ways and means to make the meeting of this year for splendor, extent and variety, unequalled in our annals; and those who were present on the former occasion know full well what can be expected, for the hospitality and welcome of the sons and daughters of Kentucky are only equalled in warmth and exuberance by broadness and prodigality, and are limitless and unending.

Located geographically, so as to be easily accessible to a vast majority of the camps of the U. C. V.; with lavish attractions spread out for their pleasure; with men and women appealing to them to come to their homes and firesides, the commanding general feels that "the boys of the '60's" will be given a welcome that will have to be marked with a white stone. He, therefore, most earnestly urges the officers and members of camps to commence now without delay to make preparations to attend this grand gathering. Let them at once set about selecting delegates and alternates, and use every effort to have a large attendance, so that this reunion may, indeed, be the largest and most representative ever held. He begs all Confederate soldiers, whether of the army or navy, whether members of camps or not, to meet in Louisville and live over for a little while in loving comradeship with each other the glorious deeds of the grandest armies the world has ever known.

that this reunion may, indeed, be the largest and most representative ever held. He begs all Confederate soldiers, whether of the army or navy, whether members of camps or not, to meet in Louisville and live over for a little while in loving comradeship with each other the glorious deeds of the grandest armies the world has ever known.

IV The commanding general with much pleasure announces, at the request of its most energetic president, Mrs. W. J. Behan, that the Confederate Southern Memorial association will hold its meeting at the same time; and that the opening feature of the convention will be the usual Jefferson Davis memorial service. The time and place of this service will be given in future orders, so that every Confederate may be able to attend.

V The commanding general sincerely hopes that the press of the entire country will endeavor to stir up interest in the coming meeting, and to this end he requests that this order be published, and editorial comment made thereon.

By command of
STEPHEN D. LEE,
Commanding general.

Thousands of sick ones to whom life has been a burden have written grateful letters of thanks.

"I have suffered greatly with indigestion, constipation, also a severe liver trouble, with loss of appetite. Could not rest well at night; in fact, had no energy to work or even walk around. I felt like I was packing a heavy load and, was easily exhausted, until I took Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup, which helped me almost from the first dose. When I had taken one and one-half bottles I felt like a different man, and I knew that it was due entirely to your medicine. I used in all three bottles, and consider myself perfectly cured. At this time my appetite is good, I sleep well, and feel strong and refreshed on arising in the morning."

If you need a medicine write to-day for a Free sample bottle and "Dr. Thacher's Health Book," Give symptoms for advice. We simply ask you to try it at our expense. We know what it will do. At all druggists. 50 cents and $1.00.

LARGE STONE COMPANIES CONSOLIDATED.

H. M. Dalton Co. Purchases Plant at Princeton Missouri.

The annual meeting of the stock holders and directors of the H. M. Dalton Stone company was held in Booneville, Ind., Monday and the capital stock was increased from $45,000.00 to $90,000.00.

The President was authorized to purchase the Central Stone Plant together with all the contracts of the Dalton & White company at Princeton, Mo., owned by H. M. Dalton & C. P. White.

This is virtually a consolidation of these properties as C. P. White was president of one and H. M. Dalton at the head of the other. The purchase of the Princeton, Mo. plant carries with it a contract for 500,000 yards of stone besides the demands for commercial use. The Hopkinsville plant now has a three years' contract for its entire output. The company will put in at once an additional crusher at this point nearly doubling the capacity and will open up the quarry on the farm known as the Meyers farm where they have one hundred acres of solid stone. The plant at Princeton consists of two crushers, the largest one having a capacity of 1500 tons daily and the quarry is equipped with compressed air drills, patent dump cars and other late devices for handling stone.

Teachers Disappointed.

A letter to Miss Katie McDaniel, superintendent of county schools, from State Superintendent Fuqua states that the state treasurer is away from Frankfort and that it will not be possible to send the money for salaries due the teachers on Saturday. He states that he is unable at present to say when the draft will be sent.

WINTER MEAT EATING

The Poor Stomach's Tale of Woe.—Just Now Mi-o-na Is Needed

At this season of the year thousands of people are already showing the ill symptoms that are sure to result from the usual winter diet. Indoor life, meat eating, hearty food, lack of exercise, overwork and poor ventilation spell "sickness," and poor health.

If the stomach cannot do its work properly, ill-health is sure to follow; Mi-o-na is the one remedy that assures a natural digestion, that strengthens the stomach, that soothes and heals all irritation, congestion and inflammation in the stomach or bowels. It is this that makes it a certain and guaranteed cure for all stomach troubles.

If the digestion is impaired, the blood is impoverished and becomes filled with poisonous impurities, deranging the whole system and causing sickness and suffering. Mi-o-na, acting upon the stomach and digestive organs, cures sleeplessness, nervous troubles, headaches, backaches, and general weakness and debility.

If you are weak and ailing the chances are that it is due to a diseased stomach, but you can be cured by using Mi-o-na. Ask L. L. Elgin, the reliable druggist, to show you the strong guarantee under which Mi-o-na is sold. Mi-o-na costs but 50c a box. If it does not help you the price is absolutely nothing. 23

Political Pot.

In Todd county the political ball has begun to roll. Three candidates have already their announcements. James R. Mallory is a candidate for re-election to the office of county attorney, and H. H. Perkins also aspires to that office. S. H. Wells is a candidate for county court clerk. All these gentlemen are staunch Democrats.

BUD GARTH IS BACK AT TRENTON.

WAS LONG A FUGITIVE.

He Killed Younger Watkins and Had Terrorized Two Counties.

Bud Garth, the young desperado and degenerate son of a prominent Todd county family, who has been a fugitive from justice for nearly two years, is at his old home in Trenton in a dying condition.

Garth killed Younger Watkins at the Collins' home near Trenton as a result of a quarrel about a woman. At the time of the shooting Garth had been out of the penitentiary only a few weeks.

While the coroner was holding an inquest over the remains of his victim, Garth rode up to the scene on a horse and fired at Henry Watkins, but failed to hit him. Defying arrest the young man terrorized several communities in Christian and Todd counties for two or three weeks and then disappeared. It is understood that he went to the Philippines and recently had been in Arizona. His health has broken down under continual disipation, and he was brought home Monday by his mother and sister. It is believed that he can live but a few days. The warrant for his arrest for murdering Watkins has not been served.

Fraud Exposed.

A few counterfeiters have lately been making and trying to sell imitations of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, and other medicines, thereby defrauding the public. This is to warn you to beware of such people, who seek to profit through stealing the reputation of remedies which have been successfully curing disease for over 35 years. A sure protection to you is our name on the wrapper. Look for it on all Dr. King's and Bucklen's remedies as all others are mere imitations. E. E. BUCKLEN & CO., Chicago, Ill., and Windsor Canada.
